Hecht Says No Agreement Made To "Split Costs"

Claims He Didn't Know What Marshall Would Do With Names Furnished

MERELY PICKED THEM UP WHILE ON ROUNDS

Does Not Know 'Miss Ward' — Denies Testimony Of Butler Attorney

The case of Detective Morris A. Hecht and Constable James Ellison, charged with conspiracy in connection with the fictitious names act, will go to the jury this afternoon. Testimony was closed for the defense, shortly before 11 o'clock this morning. Part of the arguments to the jury were completed at noon.

Morris A. Hecht, of the State Detective Bureau, Pittsburgh, who with Constable James A. Ellison is on trial before Judge James A. Chambers in Lawrence County Court for conspiracy in connection with prosecutions under the Ficticious Names Act, went upon the witness stand for the defense this morning.

Hecht flatly denied that there was any arrangements between him, Alderman Marshall and Constable Ellison, by which he was to secure a portion of the fines on costs paid in prosecutions under the act.

He said that he had come out from Pittsburgh in connection with work which he had been doing for a jewelry firm in Pittsburgh. He had also done some work here for jewelry firms, in the matter of collections.

Turned Names Over

He claimed that while out on his jewelry work he had jotted down the names of places which were doing business under other than individual names. He had later looked up the records at the prothonotary's office to see if these firms were properly registered. When he found that some were not he turned the names over to Alderman Marshall.

He claimed that he merely did this through courtesy which one officer extends to another. He said that he was likely to have some work for Alderman Marshall in connection with his jewelry collections.

PA NEWC OBSERVES

Summer must have been having its last fling, until an other year, last night when the weather grew so warm. Nearly every one Young Pa Newc came in contact with said "My, isn't the weather warm."

The cleaning of the lamps on the North Street Bridge, yesterday, attracted quite a few younger people. Pa Newc has often wondered if the cleaners have ever been so unlucky as to let one of these lamps fall.

Last night's rain and the rain this morning will be a welcome omen to many people about the country. Leaves have fallen more profusely each day on account of the dry weather conditions.

Today's weather is a delightful change from yesterday when real summer temperatures prevailed. The weather came close to rivalling that of a year ago, when the maximum reached during the day was 93 degrees.

In Pa Newc's wanderings today he observed a number of license plates on automobiles which were merely hanging "by a thread." One of these days some of the motorists will be wondering how they could have lost their license plate.

The drought has forced caretakers of the larger lawns of the city to make their own rain with water hoses. And there's more than one a

Ohio Mine Guard Severely Wounded By Snipers Today

Mine Guard Shot In Head And Feet As He Goes With Chief To Summon Aid

(International News Service)

ATHENS, O., Sept. 23.—Snipers shot and critically injured Floyd Hagedorn, 40-year-old mine guard, in a new outbreak today at the No. 267 mine of the Ohio Collieries Co., which has refused to accept Governor George White's plan for ending the seven months' coal strike.

Believed to be in retaliation against the coal company for its refusal to give jobs to men who went on strike, snipers opened fire early today on company guards and also cut telephone wires leading from the mine, according to sheriff's deputies.

Hagedorn was shot in the head and feet by rifle bullets while he and Albert Bolin, chief guard at the mine, were rushing to Glouster by automobile to summon help. He was also struck by buckshot. Brought to an Athens hospital, he was found to be in a serious condition.

Pickets, shouting out threats, milled about the road at the mine, located at Hunterton, when miners "imported" from Belmont county went to work.

Says Charity Ball Tickets Sent To Davis

Sent To Him At Pittsburgh Lodge Is Revealed By Testimony

MARGIOTTI SAYS DAVIS NOT THERE

Testimony In Case Against Davis Today Revolves Around Ticket Deliveries

By DAVID P. SENTNER
International News Service Staff Correspondent

NEW YORK, Sept. 23.—A package of charity ball tickets (alleged to be lottery tickets) were sent to U. S. Senator James J. Davis of Pennsylvania, director-general of the Loyal Order of Moose, at his lodge in Pittsburgh, it was brought out today at the trial of the former Secretary of Labor, charged with violation of the federal lottery laws.

Fred W. Jones, secretary of Davis, signed the receipt for the package, it was testified by a Pittsburgh truckman.

The package of tickets were consigned to Davis from Philadelphia, where the tickets for the 1930 Moose ball were printed and distributed.

Sent to "J. J. Davis" as Books

The package, addressed to "J. J. Davis", marked as containing books, was delivered at the Davis home lodge on October 4, 1930.

This was intended to be that most important evidence presented by the government to date.

The defense contends that Senator Davis had no knowledge of the details of the charity balls, and was unaware that "prizes" were given in connection with it.

The government alleges that Davis was the guiding hand in the 1930 and 1931 charity balls, and profited personally from it to the extent of $172,000.

The prosecution claims that Fred W. Jones, who signed the receipt for the package of tickets when it was delivered at the Davis lodge, was "the financial agent" for the senator.

Chief Defense Counsel Charles J. Margiottti of Punxsutawney and Pittsburgh, Pa., brought out that

(Special To The News)

BEVERLY HILLS, Cal., Sept. 23.—Wisconsin did something or other in the papers this morning. I don't know what it was as they are always doing something that nobody can figure out.

Stock market did something yesterday, too. I don't know what it was; it's always doing something that nobody can figure out.

Looks like this fellow McKee, the acting mayor of New York, is doing some mighty good acting, and is likely to be cast for the part permanently. Walker wasn't as smart as I figured him. I would never let an understudy like that get a chance to "go on" if I had been Jimmy.

Had a great night last night. There was static on the radio and you couldn't hear a single political speech.

Mayor Asks Council As To Dysart's Status As Officer Of City

Mayor Chas. Maype today informed colleagues during councilmanic meeting at city hall that he will refuse to approve the salary of Policeman Henry Dysart, designated in 1928, to serve as an inspector in the city legal bureau, unless Dysart's status is fully clarified.

The mayor charged that Dysart is a member of the police department but does not report on or off duty to officers of that department. The mayor declared he has to approve payrolls but does not know when Dysart does or does not work.

An ordinance, passed in February 1928, which provided for the designation of a policeman as an inspector was read. The mayor asked for information as to how Dysart came to be sent to the municipal bureau as the inspector.

The ordinance books were studied but the record could not be located so they could be read to council today. The city clerk was instructed to study further and have the records ready at council's next meeting.

Next Pay October ?

The next pay day for city employes will come October 3. Council will hold another formal session Monday and it is likely that all the particulars in the controversy will be again discussed and upon this will depend the mayor's action, he indicated.

When council met in the city hall the mayor asked colleagues: "Just what time does the city solicitor give here for his salary?"

"He is in your department (department of public affairs) and you ought to know," Treser responded.

"Mr. White is in court today," Genkinger informed the mayor.

The mayor wanted to know "Are we buying part of his time?"

"It is too bad he is not here to answer your question," Treser replied.

"A man was employed in his department four years ago. That man is in my department and I have to approve his pay" said the mayor. "There is no check in my department to show if he does or does not work. I will refuse to approve the payroll until I have a check on his work.

"The ordinance says he is to be a police officer. He does not report to the police department and has never done so," the mayor charged.

"You can take him any time you say so" Genkinger told the mayor. He suggested that the mayor have the ordinance which created the position read. The city clerk secured the ordinance and read it to the members of council.

The ordinance provided for the creation of a position as inspector in the legal department. It also prescribed his duties and further provided the manner in which a policeman should be designated to the inspectorship.

The ordinance said that "council may, with the approval of the mayor, from time to time, designate a policeman who shall serve as an inspector 'upon the recommendation of the solicitor.'

It went further to say that he

Three Pennsylvania Counties Are Granted Relief Loans By R.F.C.

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, Sept. 23.—Three of Pennsylvania's counties—Allegheny, Philadelphia and Northampton—today have their immediate relief needs cared for through a direct relief loan of $2,500,000 from the Reconstruction Finance corporation, but the others will not receive their funds until Gov. Pinchot or his agents furnish the same information which was given for those three. This was made plain by unanimous statement of the directors of R. F. C.

Refute Pinchot Charges.

Chairman Pomerene had just left the meeting of the directors which approved the loan when he was notified of Gov. Pinchot's third blast in as many days against the R. F. C. He immediately prepared a formal statement in the names of all directors, refuting much that Pinchot has charged, and placing the blame for the delay in dealing with the destitute of Pennsylvania squarely on the shoulders of Pinchot himself.

"If there has been any failure to grant relief to the poor and distressed of Pennsylvania," it read, "the fault lies with the governor and the legislature of that great state and not with the Reconstruction Finance corporation. The president of the United States and the Reconstruction Finance corporation are fully advised as to their responsibility. They are eager to have the relief measures of congress administered in accordance with their spirit."

Lengthy Statement Is Issued Today By Reconstruction Committee

PINCHOT ASKED FOR $45,000,000

Pennsylvania Did Not Supply Relief Board With All Of Necessary Facts

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, Sept. 23.—Taking cognizance of "the many misstatements which have issued from Harrisburg" during negotiations for a federal-aid loan for Pennsylvania, the Reconstruction Finance corporation today issued a lengthy statement coincident with the announcement of a $2,500,000 loan for both direct and work relief in Philadelphia, Northampton and Allegheny counties.

The statement, which presents the R. F. C. side in the long drawn out controversy with Gov. Gifford Pinchot, follows:

"In view of the many misstatements which have issued from Harrisburg, with respect to the Reconstruction Finance corporation and its administration of relief funds, we desire the people of Pennsylvania to know the facts.

Wanted Too Much.

"Under date of July 18, three days before the emergency relief and construction act of 1932 became a law, Governor Pinchot filed an application for (to use his own language) "the full share of Pennsylvania" in the $300,000,000 relief fund provided by congress. He asked for $45,000,000, requesting that $10,000,000 be made immediately available.

"Fifty-one states and territories were eligible for relief. Fifteen per cent was the maximum any state or territory could get. If seven states, first making application, had asked for and been granted $45,000,000 there would have been nothing left for the other 44 states and territories.

"On August 2 Governor Pinchot appeared in person before the board to present Pennsylvania's case. He was requested to return August 4 with certain officials of the state and legislative leaders. After a full hearing on August 4 the board, thru Chairman Pomerene, advised Governor Pinchot that the Reconstruction Finance corporation would withhold action upon his application un-

Pinchot Hints R. F. C. Loan May Not Be Accepted

Governor Says Relief Allowance Is Totally Inadequate For State

DISPUTES REPORT OF COMMISSION

(International News Service)

HARRISBURG, Sept. 23.—Gov. Gifford Pinchot hinted in a statement today that he might refuse the $2,500,000 loan authorized by the Reconstruction Finance Corp. directors and charged the board with "substituting its judgment for that of the State Emergency Relief should be spent in Pennsylvania.

Although the Governor was at his home in Milford, he authorized the statement issued through the executive department at the Capitol here, expressing his displeasure with the action of the corporation in granting the loan only to Allegheny, Philadelphia, and Northampton counties.

The board at the time of the approval late yesterday said these were the only counties for which the necessary data had been filed.

Governor Pinchot accused Atlee Pomerene, R. F. C. chairman, of falsely stating the situation in announcing the board's grant and declared that its offer of the loan was predicated upon his signing an illegal receipt.

Whether or not he signs that receipt, he said, he will be governed by the congressional act and not by the R. F. C.'s dictates.

No power was conferred upon the corporation to limit a governor to the expenditure of relief money in particular counties, Governor Pinchot charged, adding that "they will not deceive the people of Pennsylvania. I shall not cease my efforts to secure the relief for this state which Congress intended for it to have."

Pinchot Statement

Governor Pinchot's statement follows:

"After months of delay, the Reconstruction Finance Corporation has offered Pennsylvania a totally inadequate advance for unemployment relief. Its offer is predicated upon the signature by me of a

Japan To Send Plea To Remove Big U. S. Fleet

Gentle Hint To Be Dropped To Uncle Sam In Near Future

JAPAN SUSPICIOUS OF UNITED STATES

Great American Fleet Is Concentrated In Pacific Waters At Present

By JAMES R. YOUNG
International News Service Staff Correspondent

TOKYO, Sept. 23.—Japan intends shortly to drop a gentle hit to Washington that the withdrawal of part of the great American fleet now concentrated in the Pacific would go a long way toward allaying the growing suspicion among her people that the United States is preparing to make war against them.

This almost unprecedented step, International News Service learned, was decided upon after an almost unceasing press campaign against the United States for the past month in which the Japanese newspapers have spread stories of American spy operations, reinforcement of American aviation units in the Philippines and other tales that have greatly excited the public.

To Bring Matter to Attention.

The hint is to be conveyed by Vice-Admiral Kichisaburo Nomuro, member of the supreme naval council, who is scheduled to depart for America soon on a frankly stated mission to better relations between Japan and the United States. If Nomura is forcer to abandon the trip—his health has not been good—the matter will be brought to Washington's attention through some other unofficial channel.

Nomura, who commanded the Japanese naval forces in the recent Sino-Japanese "war" at Shanghai, has a wide acquaintance among American naval men. It is believed his views, though conveyed as those of an individual and not of the Japaneses government, will have considerable weight at Washington.

Although the spy scare and similar

Man Is Found With Heart On Left And Right Side, Dan Cupid Punctures Both

(International News Service)

PITTSBURGH, Sept. 23.—What's an extra heart beat?

To Edward Reynolds, 32, of this city, the double heart beat comes natural because he possesses two hearts. Now Reynolds is hoping for two lives.

A broken arm while he was swimming at Johnstown, Pa., 12 years ago revealed to Reynolds for the first time that he was an extraordinary person.

At that time a doctor found his heart on the right side. Later an X-ray showed he possessed a second heart, although smaller, on the left side.

"But what's the difference?" Reynolds commented. "They both have been punctured by 'Dan Cupid'."

As I tread the wooded hillside and I drive the broad highway, there are rabbits haunt my footsteps as they scamper blithe and gay. Seems to me there must be millions of the rascals here and there and they gambol on the greensward, with no worry and no care. But the hunting season beckons and the cotton tails will know that it's time to hunt their cabins, that it's time for them to go. And the woods will all be barren as the bunnies wend their way, for they know when hunting's proper, weather's seventy two today.

CANNING PROJECT BREAKS 1931 RECORDS

Record Amount Established In Canning Project

Workers In Three Schools Yesterday Put Up Over 3,000 Quarts Of Food

BEN FRANKLIN IS LEADER FOR DAY

Thursday was a banner day with the various groups engaged in the community canning project, which got under way on Wednesday, 3,434 quarts of tomatoes, apples, and peaches being canned in the three schools by the workers. This did not include 128 quarts which were put up at the Senior High School by the home economics class.

The women at the Ben Franklin school topped the list yesterday, 1,816 quarts of fruit and vegetables being canned, while Mahoning school was second with 873, and the George Washington workers had 745.

To date, the workers have canned 6,269 quarts of food, or more than was canned during the entire period last year, and it is expected that by Saturday evening, close to 11,000 quarts of fruit and vegetables will have been put up.

It was necessary to secure additional cans today, as the supply on hand was not adequate to last the day out, 7,600 cans and glass jars having been secured at the start of the project.

MAYOR ASKS COUNCIL AS TO DYSART'S STATUS A OFFICER OF CITY

may be returned to the police department upon the recommendation of the solicitor'. The points that the mayor built his attitude around evidently were the 'recommendations' of the solicitor.

He charged that only upon the recommendation of the solicitor could a member be designated as inspector.

Councilman Treser and Davis pointed out that the solicitor could only recommend the man to fill the position.

"I can only appoint the man he 'recommends' the mayor argued after which he charged: "You can't elect one he does not 'recommend'."

Genkinger Explains.

Councilman Genkinger asked the chair to be allowed to explain the intention of the ordinance adopted years ago. "The intent of the ordinance was that, when the solicitor needed an inspector the solicitor was to go to the mayor and they were to decide what man was best qualified for the position. Any time the mayor needed the man he was to ask for him" Genkinger told the mayor.

The mayor told colleagues that he had been approving the payroll of Henry Dysart who is the policeman designated as an inspector.

"Has the solicitor questioned your authority over this man?" Mr. Davies inquired of the mayor.

"No. The only thing I can do is to O. K. the payroll or tie it all up. He does not work under me," the mayor replied.

The question as to when Dysart was designated inspector was placed as February, 1928.

"You have not made a request for his services." Genkinger told the mayor.

"I know there is no need of a man in the legal department for more than three months in a year" the mayor alleged.

"I differ with you," Davies remarked.

"I know he has been of great assistance to me" Treser declared.

"I am not objecting to the man but I do object to the way the ordinance is written", the mayor told colleagues.

Money Not Collected.

He then alleged that for "four years there has been no effort made to collect the city's money." He declared that "it could have been collected for years back." He said there is a considerable amount of money due the city.

He has been working on this" Treser told the mayor.

"Why didn't he work on it years ago?" the mayor inquired, adding: "I have no authority over him."

Council said he did. Councilman Hoyland aligned himself with the mayor by stating "I would say, no."

Councilman Genkinger again informed the mayor that "you have not made a request for his services."

"Did you ever talk to the solicitor?" Davies inquired of the mayor.

"No. I'm not his boss" the mayor asserted.

"Who is?" inquired Treser.

"He don't pay any attention to me and I don't to him" the mayor replied.

"Then one of you should get out" Treser declared.

Councilman Davies declared that not a half dozen policemen are qualified to perform the duties that Dysart is doing. He said the solicitor had recommended a man the solicitor believed qualified.

"I am not objecting to the man" the mayor reiterated "it's the way the ordinance is written."

A study next was made as to how Dysart came to be designated. The record could not be ascertained.

The mayor said the city clerk would have several days to locate the record and council would meet again before the city pay day for the last half of September month.

SAYS CHARITY BALL TICKETS SENT TO DAVIS

Senator Davis was not represented as having seen the package of tickets.

John McNeill, chief clerk of the vehicle department of the American Railway Express, Philadelphia, identified the receipt.

Margiotti asked:

"Don't you know that Senator Davis was in Washington on October 4, 1930?"

McNeill replied:

"I don't."

Sent from Philadelphia

The package came from Edward McMahon in Philadelphia, who had been given authority by Supreme Secretary Malcolm Giles to make arrangements for handling the tickets.

McNeill, the express clerk, testified that in September, 1930, McMahon talked with him concerning rates on 102,300 "uniform packages" which were to be shipped to various parts of the country.

The witness said when the "uniform packages" were shipped some broke open and he saw they were Moose charity ball tickets.

A number of employes for the Western Union Company were called as witnesses.

Delivery of packages for Bernard C. McGuire, promoter of the charity balls, was testified to.

It was shown that McGuire ran a "charge account" with Western Union, payment of which was guaranteed.

The "propagation department" of the Loyal Order of Moose at Mooseheart, Ill., was billed for the delivery of the packages by the Western Union Company, it was brought out.

When Charles H. Tuttle objected to the introduction of the records of the Western Union, Federal Judge Frank J. Coleman ruled them competent.

"We can't bring in thousands of the company's employes all over the country to testify directly when the regular order of business recorded by the company will show the same testimony," said Judge Coleman.

Supplemental Aid.

"While in the city Governor Pinchot was handed a copy of our emergency relief bulletin No. 1. This bulletin was mailed to all governors of states and territories with a converting letter dated August 3. The bulletin emphasized the fact that it was the plain intent of the congress that any funds made available to the states shall be not in lieu of but merely supplemental to local and state governmental funds and private contributions, which are available or which may be made available and then only as a last resort in case funds from such sources are inadequate.

"Governor Pinchot was requested by the corporation to comply with bulletin No. 1 by submitting data in support of his application for federal funds. In this respect he was treated exactly the same as every other governor who has filed an application for funds under the relief act. With the exception of Governor Pinchot all governors who have applied for funds. 25 in number, have complied with these requirements.

"Specifically bulletin No. 1 requests governors to furnish a list of all municipalities or other political subdivisions within the state for which federal funds are requested; the estimated total amount needed for direct relief and work relief, including cost of administration. For each of the remaining calendar months of 1932 and the estimated amounts available for the remaining calendar months of 1932 from local governmental funds, from private contributions, from state governmental funds or from funds supplied by national agencies.

Asked For Data

"Likewise, information is requested concerning expenditures for direct relief and work relief during the same months.

"Governor Pinchot, like all other governors, was requested to furnish information concerning the number of families and number of homeless or non-family persons receiving relief during each calendar month of 1932 to date and the estimated number for each month during the remainder of the year. Similar information was requested for the calendar year 1932.

"Following action by the Pennsylvania legislature appropriating $12,000,000 for emergency relief and passing certain enabling legislation. Governor Pinchot on August 19, renewed his application for federal funds. His attention was called to the fact that the corporation had not yet received the information called for. The governor replied that he had furnished all necessary data and declared that it was impossible to supply the information demanded by the corporation. This reply was made in spite of the fact that all other governors who had obtained federal funds had supplied that information.

"On September 2, Mrs. Alice F. Liveright, commissioner of public welfare of Pennsylvania and N. B. Rodgers, director of the state emergency relief board, conferred with Fred Croxton, assistant to the directors in charge of loans for relief purposes and members of his staff. They were fully advised concerning the data which the corporation considered necessary in connection with all applications from governors.

Three Counties

"For some days Mr. Croxton was expecting the desired information from Harrisburg. On Tuesday afternoon September 20, he received a letter dated September 16, with accompanying data concerning three counties— Philadelphia, Allegheny and Northampton. The analysis of the facts furnished was begun Wednesday morning, September 21. On Thursday morning September 22, Mr. Croxton made a report to the board and immediately thereafter $2,500,000 was unanimously voted for relief to Pennsylvania. If there was any undue delay it was the fault of the Pennsylvania officials in not furnishing the required information.

"The Reconstruction Finance Corporation act required that in making application for relief, the governor must certify that the resources of the state or territory, including monies then available and which can be made available by the state or territory, its political subdivisions and private contributions are inadequate to meet their relief needs. The information called for was necessary in part to determine these questions of fact in order to enable the board to make an equitable distribution among the several states and territories.

Fault With Pinchot

"If there has been any failure to grant relief to the poor and distressed of Pennsylvania, the fault lies with the governor and the legislature of that great state and not with the Reconstruction Finance Corporation. The president of the United States and the Reconstruction Finance Corporation are fully advised as to their responsibility. They are eager to have the relief measures of congress administered in accordance with their spirit.

"Further loans which come within the scope of our authority will be made promptly if, when, and as, the information required is presented.

"Any statement to the contrary, no matter by whom made, is not true."

Fleet Frightens Japan.

A Paris dispatch published today that France and the United States have agreed upon a united front against Japanese aspirations in Manchuria has served to intensify that ill-feeling, at a moment when the League of Nations is making ready to consider the Lytton report on the Manchurian conflict, in the preparation of which an American representative played a part.

The long stay of the American Atlantic fleet in the Pacific in particular has aroused nervousness. It has been difficult to explain to the Japanese that the maneuvers in the Pacific were planned long before Secretary of State Stimson sent his first note to Tokyo on the Manchurian trouble.

COP CAPTURES COW IN HEART OF PARIS

(International News Service)

PARIS, Sept. 23.—A cow in a police-station caused a big commotion in the first ward district recently.

A gendarme saw her meandering lazily down the street near the Louvre museum, absolutely unconcerned of all the fast traffic buzzing about her. Taking old bossie by the horns, he was obliged to lead her to the nearest commissariat where she was later claimed by farmer Burger, of la Chapelle-Gauthier, who had lost her on his way to market.

YOUNG PEOPLE HAVE FAREWELL FOR MEMBERS

The young people of the Highland U. P. church had a farewell party Thursday evening for Miss Lois Williamson and Clarence Manor, who will leave the city about October 1 to make their home in Pittsburgh.

The young people met at the church at 8 o'clock and after a business meeting, when plans were made for the fall work, the group piled into automobiles and motored to the Willows, where, over an open fire, hamburgs were fried and coffee was cooked and as each made up his own lunch heaps of fun was enjoyed, with only a hint of sadness in the air, as the thoughts of losing two of the most active members of the organization protruded into the thoughts of all.

Dr. T. J. McFate spoke the words of farewell for the group.

PINCHOT HINTS R. F. C. LOAN MAY NOT BE ACCEPTED

wholly illegal form of receipt. The Reconstruction Finance Corporation is substituting its judgment for that of the state emergency relief board as to where relief money shall be spent in Pennsylvania.

"The federal relief act expressly provides: 'All amounts paid to a governor of a state under this section shall be administered by the governor or under his direction, and upon his responsibility.' No power whatever was conferred upon the Reconstruction Finance Corporation to limit a governor to the expenditure of relief money in particular counties of his state.

"Whether or not I sign the receipt when it reaches me, I porpose to be governed by the act of Congress and not by the dictates of the Reconstruction Finance Corporation.

"In announcing the action of the Reconstruction Finance Corporation Senator Pomerene falsely stated the situation, as other representatives of the Reconstruction Finance Corporation had previously done. They will not deceive the people of Pennsylvania. I shall not cease my efforts to secure the relief for this state which Congress intended it to have."

Don't worry about China. Always in history, a persecuted nation finally licks the one that teaches it how to fight.

Palus-Ciccerone Wedding

The St. Vitus church was the scene of a pretty wedding yesterday morning when Miss Louise Palus, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. Palus, of East Lutton street, became the bride of Sullivan Ciccerone, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Ciccerone of Forge street. The ceremony was performed at 10 o'clock with the Rev. N. DeMita officiating.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, was lovely in a gown of ivory satin, extremely long, made with fitted lines and long sleeves. She wore a veil of ivory tulle, duchess style, and long train. She carried Easter lilies, tiny white rosebuds and lilies of the valley.

Miss Mary DeSimone, her only attendant, was attired in a yellow tulle dress with large picture hat to match. She carried tea roses.

Little Norma Fazzone, niece of the bride, who was dressed in a dainty frock of pink georgette and ecru lace with hat to match, was train bearer.

Sam Sylvester, cousin of the groom, served as best man.

Supplementing the ceremony, a wedding dinner was served at the home of the groom's parents, covers being laid for members of the immediate families. The bridal table was arranged for 15 guests, being carried out in pretty appointments of white, and a bouquet of the season's flowers in pastel shades graced the center.

The bride attended New Castle senior high school and was affiliated with the Shenango Pottery Co. The groom also attended the local high school and holds a position in the office of the Shenango Pottery Company of this city.

Later in the day Mr. and Mrs. Ciccerone left for a 10-day trip, their destination being unrevealed.

For traveling the bride chose a black crepe dress with coat and accessories to match.

A number of lovely gifts have been received by the honored couple.

Upon their return they will be at home to their many friends at the residence of the groom's parents, at 216 Forge street.

Concluding the feature, those assembled were favored with violin music by the Kennedy brothers accompanied by Mrs. J. B. Kennedy at the piano and Miss Gettings. A group of clever readings by Mr. and Mrs. Edward Welty brought the program to a close, with all adjourning at a late hour.

PI OMICRON MEMBERS AT HENRY HOME

An exceptionally interesting meeting of the Pi Omicron Sorority members was held Thursday evening, they selecting the Margaret Henry Home as their meeting place, where they were entertained by the kiddies in a most entertaining manner, with Miss Henry and Mrs. Lydia Green acting hostesses.

Upon arrival of the members, Miss Henry and Mrs. Green took them through the building, showing how the bedrooms were arranged, the little room with numerous piegon holes where each kept their shoes, their names being tacked on the shelves; their study room, and through the basement; shelves of foodstuffs donated to the Home canned by the women in charge etc., proved a most interesting event for the sorority associates.

At the appointed hour, 6:30 those assembled paying the set sum for a delicious plate dinner, were served in the dining room at a long table where covers were laid for twenty. The menu was most delicious. The ginger cake was very tasty, and the members requested a copy of the recipe for five cents, which also went to the benefit of the home. Concluding this feature, a playlet entitled "The Grocerman's Pie" was put on by the young ones, carrying out a clever story.

The regular meeting of the members was called, with Mrs. R. F. Roberts presiding. Election of officers occurred with the following results: president, Marguerite Cordes; vice-president, Mae Thomas; secretary, Eve Nicklin and treasurer, Margaret Bookamer.

As a surprise to Mrs. Roberts, a doll made by Helen Nocera, member of the Home, and dressed in the Pi Omicron colors, was presented to her by Dorothy Blair.

A pantomine "Red Wing" was carried out by two of the youngsters who were garbed in genuine Seminole Indian suits brought by Miss Henry from Florida, as a special feature.

The occasion was closed by the reviewing of the hospital of the Home, just across the way. These in charge of this splendid institution, are to be complimented for the splendid management which they conduct it, and the good behavior of the kiddies was extremely noticable.

As a special guest, the members were favored with the presence of Miss Pearl Shaffer of the Tampa, Fla., chapter of Pi Omicron, who is visiting with her sister, Mrs. George D. Carr, Delaware avenue. She gave a short talk telling of the work done by her group.

The Pi Omicron members are formulating plans to entertain members of the Youngstown chapter in the very near future.

BUILDERS TREASURE HUNT FINE SUCCESS

On Thursday evening, the Builders met at the Cathedral for the start of their treasure hunt which lead to the farm of C. F. Templeton near Slippery Rock.

As each entered the farm, they registered. The boys began the hunt at the corn crib, garbed in old clothes and with the assistance of flashlights, circled about the farm for two hours seeking clues which they found in trees, under stones, in bleached skulls of farm animals and finally the clue lead back to the corn crib where the treasure, a large box of wrapped candy was found. In a bowl shaped depression made in the ground especially for the occasion, they build a huge bonfire and here enjoyed roasted wieners and toasted marshmallows. While this was in progress, a period of story telling and songs was in order. The successful treasure hunters were Bill Ice and Bob Allen.

The committee in charge comprised Clyde McCready, chairman, John Thompson, Henry Lawton and John Templeton, Jr. Thirty participated, including the Builders and their friends who voted the unique event a decided success.

DOES IT END THE LA FOLLETTE DYNASTY?

HIGHLY interesting news comes from the state of Wisconsin. Governor Phillip F. La Follette, for two years head of the progressive Republican administration in that state, has been beaten by his conservative opponent, Walter J. Kohler, by thousands of votes. Moreover, Senator Blaine, seeking renomination as a radical, ran behind John E. Chapple, the energetic Ashland editor who is classed as a conservative.

This is a surprising overturn and shows a remarkable change in sentiment in Wisconsin. Heretofore Mr. La Follette and the members of his family have held the state in the hollow of their hands. But it is a long lane that has no turning, and at last the people seem to have a surfeit of the radicalism which has been handed out to them by their political overlords.

The question that will arise in most minds will be whether this is the beginning of the end of the La Follette dynasty in the Badger state.

THE JOY OF CREATION

Hubert T. Parson, at the head of one of the greatest retail merchandising establishments in the world, says: "The sole economic purpose of business is to provide a service to the public. If it does not do that it is economic waste."

The modern business spirit has caught the significance of a word which once was the property of masters, slaves and preachers. Service now is spelled in big letters by the best business institutions of the country.

The idea still needs to be rescued fully from its association with humiliation and raised to a place of pride. It is not enough that the administrator in the mahogany office should realize that the business organization must stand for service in the community. The full benefit of the motive will not be realized until every last man and woman on the job catches the inspiration and measures up to it.

There is a prevalent notion that the pride and joy of creation died out with the men who cleared the forests and single-handed builded their homes in the wilderness; with the hand-craftsmen who shaped their products into completion by slow methods of the carpentry bench; with the wagon maker who steamed the wood and bent the felloes and ironed off the wheel in the primitive shop.

The workman of today should be able to catch, and often does catch a farther vision of service. The old wagon maker, working alone, turned out a wagon in the course of a winter; the modern workman, cooperating with thousands of his fellows, and receiving the cooperation of the capital savings of many others, sees the work of his hands daily eventuating in the production of thousands of vehicles of vastly greater usefulness. The old-time wagon was an inert thing, to be dragged about by beasts of burden; the modern automobile is instinct with life and energy.

It is infinitely more inspiring, if properly viewed, to have a share in a big achievement than to be alone in an insignificant one. There is not a man who works to a purpose in our great modern system of production, who may not claim the priceful consciousness and worthy service. And, as Mr. Parson declares, that which is not service is economic waste.

WHY MISSING PERSONS?

When newspapers recently announced the mysterious disappearance of Colonel Raymond Robins, they touched once more on the fringes of one of the strangest, most eerie phenomena of human life—the way in which people now and then vanish, almost literally, from human sight, leaving no clew and never making a reappearance.

Such things happen, cause a brief sensation, and then are forgotten. But a sentitive reader gets a shudder or two out of thinking about them. They are sometimes so utterly inexplicable, so profoundly weird, that one almost can believe in those heebie-jeebie stories of the old days about maleficent spirits and trapdoors in the earth's atmosphere.

What, for example, became of Dorothy Arnold, the New York society girl who strolled along Fifth avenue in broad daylight 22 years ago, on her way to have luncheon at a mid-town hotel with her mother, and who has never since been seen?

Where is Judge Crater of New York's supreme court, who got into a taxicab in front of a restaurant one evening in August, 1930, waved goodbye to some acquaintances, and went off into an obscurity so profound that although $200,000 has been spent on a hunt for him no one has been able even to discover a reason for his disappearance?

Where are the scores of other lesser known folk, who vanished just as mysteriously but who didn't get such big headlines in the newspapers? Were they victims of that odd, little-understood malady called amnesia? Did sudden illness of some other nature strike them down? Did kidnapers, footpads, white slavers or what-not make away with them? Did they yield to an unexpected and inexplicable impulse simply to run away, discarding the old life and trying to create a new one in different surroundings?

Asking these questions is easy. Answering them, usually, is impossible. We only know that someone who seemed contented and busy has disappeared; and the mystery has an errie, shivery tinge to it that makes us, in spite of ourselves, remember the old wives' tales that used to frighten our credulous ancestors.

WEATHERMAN'S SCORE

Lay readers of the official daily weather forecasts may have smiled sardonically at the recent claim of the official prophets to 90 per cent accuracy. They have in mind days when the sun beat upon official forecasts of snow in the newspapers, or of picnics, planned on fair and warmer promises, postponed on account of rain. Many, no doubt, wonder if the claim wasn't intended to read "90 per cent inaccurate."

But the forecasters put up an argument. Their alibi is that the man on the street doesn't always know what is going on atmospherically. When the forecaster predicts snow his wisdom is justified by a mere trace of snow somewhere. When he forecasts rain, if a trace of moisture dampens his sensitive instruments he is 100 per cent perfect.

It is easily possible for the weather man to be 90 per cent accurate and yet appear to be 90 per cent wrong. Weather is fickle, particularly in mountainous regions, where showers and sunshine may alternate a dozen times in a dozen hours or occur side by side in the same square mile. Shifting air currents can bring rain within a few hours after they have revealed continued fair weather to the meteorologist.

Misunderstandings occur between the weather man and the weather conscious because in the understanding of the latter an official weather report applies to their own half acre.

A Doctor Who Quit Patients Desire Action Not Good Advice

By MARSHALL MASLIN

A doctor I know has quit the practice of medicine because his patients would not allow him to be a good and honest physician.

He was intelligent and experienced and sympathetic. When people came to him with their troubles he would ask two questions: (1) What is your worry? (2) How are you living? For he knew that in the majority of cases the cause of the illness was worry combined with foolish habits. He talked about the mental trouble and then he asked what his patient was eating. Usually it was wrong. Sometimes he sent patients to a good surgeon, but almost always he suggested changes in diet.

But people didn't like that. They wanted ACTION. They wanted HIM to do something—give them medicine, cut them open, send them a bill.

So it didn't work. He had to fake a little or quit the practice of medicine. So he quit.

It's a shame, but that's how it happened.

If I told this to a doctor I'd expect him to say that I've left something out of my story, but I haven't. This is just the way it happened.

My doctor quit because his patients wanted him to deceive them a little, as part of his treatment, and he wouldn't do it.

Doctors know that sick people insist on being deceived and all good doctors know how much pressure there is upon them to function as "quacks".

Plato knew this 23 centuries ago. He wrote of how the sick in his day desired no easy remedy for their ills, but insisted on the knife.

Pliny of Rome wrote of the foolish fad of drinking wine on an empty stomach and said it was started by doctors, "who are always trying to advertise themselves with something new."

The patients flock to the doctor who has something new; they want no old or simple remedy for their ills. All doctors know that.

* * *

A young doctor complained of a patient who came to him frequently with a terrible "neuralgic" pain. "I inject some distilled water into him," said the doctor, "and the pain goes away. If I told him the pain was 'imaginary' or 'mental' he'd go to another doctor and he might find a 'quack' who'd take all his money away from him and do him no good. What can I do?"

Nothing, of course. The most unpopular doctor is the one who tells you that nothing is wrong with you—and every doctor learns that almost immediately after he begins to practice.

* * *

My doctor who quit medicine is down in the country now, tending roses and fruit trees and puppy dogs. He finds that practice much more satisfactory. And he is happier.

But somehow or other I think he'll return. The suffering of human beings, real or imagined, will draw him back.

SMALL TOWN FOLK

You may visit relatives in a small village.

Coming from a city, many things may amuse you.

You will see men and women who will impress you as "funny and queer".

Because you do not know them, you may not be very particular about who hears the unfavorable remarks you are likely to make.

While many of these "funny and queer" persons may live in an unpretentious manner, they may be fine men and women, intimate friends of your relatives where you are being entertained.

In their town, people are not appraised according to their clothes and style, but on deeper and more intimate knowledge.

There is not the demand for bluff and front in the small place that you think is necessary for people in a large city.

People are classified on their real merit and what they represent as good citizens.

The most cheaply dressed and ordinary looking person you meet in the village may be one of the finest characters in the community.

He may bear a reputation for character and accomplishment that you might well envy because it is based upon good deeds and honorable conduct.

NO NATIONAL HOLIDAYS

Strictly speaking there are no national holidays in this country. There are none, that is, appointed by Congress. Each state has its own laws on holidays. However, the following are observed almost everywhere in the United States:

Jan. 1, New Year's Day; Feb. 22, Washington's Birthday; July 4, Independence Day; first Monday in September, Labor Day; last Thursday in November, Thanksgiving Day; Dec. 25, Christmas Day. Labor Day is not a legal holiday in Alabamba and Wyoming, and Thanksgiving is not in Utah.

In addition to those named, Lincoln's Birthday, Feb. 12, and Memorial Day, May 30, are legal holidays in all but the southern states. Most of these states have Memorial days of their own, the general Confederate Memorial Day being April 26. Columbus Day, Oct. 12, is a legal holiday in about 35 states, including Ohio. A dozen states make Good Friday a holiday, and about 25, including Ohio, have added Armistice Day, Nov. 11, to their lists. The general election day, the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November, is a full legal holiday in most states, but in Ohio it is only a half-holiday.

Other holidays of more than local observance are Robert E. Lee's Birthday, Jan. 19, and Jefferson Davis', June 3, observed throughout the south; Shrove Tuesday, observed in Louisiana, Alabama and Florida, and Patriot's Day, April 19, in Massachusetts and Maine.

Maine's Democratic Victory Held Significant To Nation

Depression And Prohibition Are Placed Among Factors, While State's Election Is Expected To Inspire More Active Campaign

Both Democrats and Republicans recognize the importance of the Democratic victory in the Maine election. Several reasons are offered for the defeat of the Republican party in one of its strongholds, chief among them the depression and the fight against prohibition. There are some suggestions that, from a national standpoint, it leads to the conclusion that there is dissatisfaction with national policies, while others believe that the issues were purely local.

"There is no doubt," according to the BOSTON TRANSCRIPT (Ind. Rep.), "that the psychological effect of the smashing Democratic victory is something with which Republicans must reckon. It raises the question whether or not there is to be expected Republican strength in the East to offset the expected support of Roosevelt in the West." The Transcript upholds the need of "convincing appeal to voters," and advises that "such an effort is called for if Maine is to be in the Republican column in November, and the election just held strongly suggests the need of the same effort in other states."

In seeking the reason for the Republican defeat, the blame is placed upon the depression by the ALTOONA MIRROR (Ind.), the DAYTON DAILY NEWS (Ind. Dem.), the NEW YORK SUN (Ind.), and the HARTFORD TIMES (Ind. Dem.), the last mentioned remarking that the sufferers "have shown a resentful mood, voting the Democratic ticket for deviltry." The SIOUX FALLS ARGUS-LEADER (Ind. Rep.), concedes that "possibly it was due to the tendency in hard times to spank the party in office," although it points to the fact that "there was a vigorous wet and dry fight." The HAMILTON (OHIO) EVENING JOURNAL (Ind. Dem.), "It teaches us that the Hoover administration, contrary to its partisans, is growing weaker; that its failure to grapple effectively with the depression has caused resentment; and last, but not least, that Democrats need have no fear of anywhere in attacking the present extortionate tariff and prohibition." The CLEVELAND NEWS (Rep.), declares that "the effect of the prohibition issue on the result is inescapably obvious," and the CHARLESTON (S. C.) EVENING POST (Dem.), takes the result as "an indication of the partisan trend in the country" and as "highly significant of the changed attitude toward prohibition."

The effect on the two leading political parties is emphasized by numerous papers. The BALTIMORE SUN (Ind. Dem.), sees it as "a terrific jolt," while the JERSEY CITY JOURNAL (Ind. Rep.), holds that it "ought to serve as a warning and remind Republican leaders and workers that unusual work is necessary," and the CINCINNATI TIMES-STAR (Rep.), advises that "it would be folly, in view of the results in Maine, for Republicans to look for an easy and comfortable success in November." The INDIANAPOLIS NEWS (Ind. Rep.), is convinced that "both parties have an added incentive to bring the national campaign to a livelier pitch." The LEXINGTON LEADER (Rep.), thinks the result "will renew the energies of the Republicans for the big fight," adding that "it would be folly not to regard the election in Maine as at this time significant of a general trend of thought and feeling." The BIRMINGHAM AGE-HERALD (Dem.), interprets the overturn as inspiring "the terror of a Belshazzer who has seen the fateful writing on the wall." The SPRINGFIELD (MASS.) REPUBLICAN (Ind.), views the Maine election as "a body blow to Republican hopes and a very stimulating support to Democratic expectations of victory in the Presidential election." The YOUNGSTOWN VINDICATOR (Ind. Dem.), voices similar views.

As to the importance of the Maine voting, the FORT WORTH STAR-TELEGRAM (Ind. Dem.), remarks: "Stranger things than that are likely to happen in this topsy turvy condition of American affairs. Since Texas went Hoovercratic four years ago, strangeness has gone to join the commonplace." The NEW CASTLE NEWS (Rep.), argues that "dissatisfaction with local and state affairs played some part," but Republicans "cannot make the mistake of overlooking the significance of the Maine election." The CHARLESTON (W. VA.) DAILY MAIL (Ind. Rep.), believes that "the Democrats have scored a significant success which fits in with the claims they have been making, but it does not fit in well enough to justify them in thinking the national victory is won."

"The campaign was waged largely on national issues, and the Hoover administration was vitally involved," in the opinion of the ATLANTA JOURNAL (Dem.), which concludes: "Nothing short of a revolution in the sentiment of that state could have produced such a result. Nothing less than a gathering tidal wave of national revolt against the inefficiencies and injustices of the Republican regime could so have changed the political habits of an electorate which for generations has been rolling up Republican majorities. No circumstance or condition confined to that state can account for such an overturn. The grievance in Maine was the grievance of America. The voice of Maine is the prophetic voice of America."

"There is an indication that every other Republican stronghold becomes a doubtful state," says the NEWARK EVENING NEWS (Ind.), while the ROANOKE WORLD-NEWS (Dem.), feels that "it evidences a deep-seated desire for change, a resentment against much that the present administration has stood for," and the NEW YORK TIMES (Ind.), sees "a vast discon-

MEET MR. BURGLAR

Midnight was striking as the householder crept down the stairs. His eyes fell on a burglar tampering with the safe.

"Jove, a real burglar," he smiled. "Wait a minute, will you?"

"While you call a cop, eh?" said the burglar. "Not me."

"No," said the householder, 'wait while I call my wife. She's heard you every night for fifteen years, and it'll be a real pleasure to her to see you at last."

Just Folks

By EDGAR A. GUEST

AN ORDINARY GOLFER'S REQUEST

An ordinary golfer, I
Ask no great mention when I die.
Dismiss me briefly. Let me go
Unflattered to the earth below.
If words of praise you seek, use these:
"He never stopped to hunt for tees!"

When I am ready for the grave,
No lengthy speech from friends I crave.
But common were the scores I made,
But common was the golf I played,
Just say, and let me sleep at ease:
"He never stopped to hunt for tees!"

Say neither wood nor celluloid
My sense of values quite destroyed.
I've never wanted kegs and kegs
Filled full with curious little pegs.
A few would satisfy and please;
I've never cared for many tees.

I've never jostled friend aside
Because a crimson peg I spied
And made of speed a fearful burst,
I hopes that I could grab it first.
Say this and end my eulogies:
"He died and left no stock of tees."

Bible Thought For Today

MY HELP—I am poor and needy; yet the Lord thinketh upon me: thou art my help and my deliverer; make no tarrying, O my God.—Psalm 40:17.

Aims For Higher Standard Of Living Must Be Retained Despite Times Says Gifford

By WALTER S. GIFFORD
President American Telephone and Telegraph Company

Our material standard of living has, except for temporary setbacks, constantly risen higher and higher until there has come not only a realization that we can but a determination that we shall have democracy in prosperity as well as democracy in politics and education That ambition for democracy of well-being for all is interent in the American people.

We will not in a temporary adversity allow ourselves to accept the attitude that we cannot ultimately achieve our goal—that we must accept the situation we find ourselves in today and must adopt an elaborate public relief system by which we may carry on with a permanent army of unemployed. That is a defeatist attitude which ignores the experience of the past. There is nothing in our history to lead to any such conclusion; on the contrary, the lessons of the past which were flagrantly ignored in the over-speculation of the recent boom years must not be ignored again or we shall again make unwarranted and costly mistakes.

Fortunately, through the sincere efforts of thousands and thousands of people who look to the future with courage and high hopes, there are already indications of business recovery. If I entertained for a moment the thought that our present unemployment and economic situation had any of the elements of permanence, I for one would wish to evolve other plans rather than to again mobilize the private welfare and relief resources.

Coolidge May Become Head Of Rail Commission

Former President Accepts Chairmanship Of Railroad Rehabilitation Program

WILL RECOMMEND CURE FOR ILLS

(International News Service)

NEW YORK, Sept. 23.—Calvin Coolidge, former president of the United States, will accept the leadership of a commission to investigate the railroad situation and recommend a program for their rehabilitation, it was reported in informed Wall street quarters Thursday.

The post has been offered to the ex-president by a committee formed by the Savings Banks association and headed by Henry Bruers, president of the Bowery Savings bank.

The Coolidge acceptance report stimulated the rails in an otherwise reactionary stock market and brought early gains of one to two points. The decline in the rest of the market carried the rails along but they made the best showing on the list.

Studies Proposal.

Coolidge has been studying the proposal for several weeks. His delay, it is reported, is attributed to efforts he has been making to have Homer Loring, Boston banker, go at the head of the commission with him.

Loring was chairman of the Boston & Maine up to two years ago and is accredited with rehabilitating that road when it was in difficulties. He served without pay as head of the B. & M. and is highly regarded in railroad circles.

The proposed Coolidge commission will make a study of the railroad situation with the view of making recommendations to congress for legislation and modification of the interstate commerce commission powers in an effort to put the rails back on their feet. The group will thus become a sort of "super-lobby".

The Milky Way

Here's one way of collecting unpaid taxes—over the morning cup of coffee, while one's resistance is still weak. The City of Newark, N. J., authorities hit upon the idea of attaching gentle reminders of overdue taxes to milk bottles. But Mrs. Ann Kelly (above) seems unaffected by the notice. Her taxes are apparently all paid up.

Treasury Denies Hiring Agents To Purchase Gold

WASHINGTON, Sept. 23.—Warning was issued yesterday to owners of old jewelry and gold that the Treasury Department is not sending out agents to buy this metal.

Director of the Mint Robert J. Grant said that throughout the depression many persons have been buying jewelry and falsy representing themselves as agents on the Treasury. They paid prices considerably under the gold's value.

After the gold is purchased it is sold to the Treasury. The law requires that the government buy whatever gold is offered in quantities of $100 or more.

tent with Republican policies." The LYNCHBURG NEWS advises that it "encourages Democrats to greater effort." The OMAHA WORLD-HERALD (Ind. Dem.), finds the country "anxious for 'a new deal', and for government with a different, more liberal, more progressive underlying philosophy." The PROVIDENCE BULLETIN (Ind.), links the result with "the silent vote", which is "dangerous", because "it is not voting for something but against something." The DES MOINES TRIBUNE (Ind. Rep.), attests that "the Republicans were frank enough to admit that it was a blow and a shock, and that they know it suggests a strong Democratic appeal to the electorate at present."

Quoting Senator Moses' advice "to organize and develop enthusiasm" for the Republican ticket," the SPOKANE SPOKESMAN-REVIEW (Rep.), declares: "That goes here in the Pacific Northwest as well as in New England." The SAN FRANCISCO CHRONICLE (Ind. Rep.), summarizes the result: "It is historically not true that 'as Maine goes so goes the nation', but it is certainly true that, after discounting local conditions the trend anywhere indicates trends elsewhere. The challenge is particularly to California. The last time Maine elected a Democratic governor was during the Democratic administration of President Wilson in 1914. At the following election in 1916 the Democratic President was re-elected by the vote of California. That vote, to be sure, was determined by a local blunder and not by general considerations. But it was nevertheless decisive. It is not a mathematical impossibility that California may again be the decisive state this year. With the large Republican registration all the advantage is with the Republican party. If there is determined effort and no overconfidence, the President's state will do its part in his reelection."

Everyone is advocating economy, but the campaign committees of the two parties actually are practicing it.—The Oklahoma City Oklahoman.

Novel Parachute Would Carry Both Passengers And Pilot

(International News Service)

PARIS, Sept. 23.—A device which will make an airplane almost as safe as a baby's cradle is now ready for the last official tests by the French government. In fact, it is going to make it a little more dangerous to take a ride in the air than one in an elevator, at any rate, a French elevator.

Mr. I. B. Ayad, French inventor, has conceived a new parachute attachment which, in any emergency, will carry all the passengers, the pilot and even the mails, safely to earth. The cabin part of the machine is detachable and able to make a separate landing by means of the parachute which is placed in the rear stabilizer.

In the event of an accident, all the pilot has to do is to pull back the lever. This lets down a shutter and forms a funnel through which, as a result of the speed of the airplane, wind is driven towards the interior, giving the first impulse for the detachment of the parachute.

A drop shutter is pushed back by a force and the parachute is released. This pulls at the cabin to which it is attached, causing it to run backward along rails fixed to a double fuselage and to swing free of the rest of the machine. The cabin then floats safely down to the ground with the help of the pilot who remains within it and able to do a certain amount of steering to a good landing-place.

The new invention, of course, requires a double tail to every machine, along which the rails are placed, but there will be no need of a separate parachute for each passenger such as is being considered as a requirement in several countries.

The inventor believes this to be the first practical example of an attempt at "collective security" of airplane passengers and should revolutionize all pleasure flying from now on. He first presented his idea to the International Air Security Congress in Paris, in 1930. It was was accepted as the most practical proposition so far put forward.

A short time later the French Air Ministry accepted his small working model and put it through most difficult tests. Last official trials of the invention will be made shortly with a large-scale model which will be towed up to a considerable height by an airplane and then released.

Colt Club Exhibits Awards Are Made

Medals Awarded Lawrence County Horse Fanciers At Fair Competition

Awards were made at the New Castle fair Wednesday to members of the Lawrence county section of the Keystone Gold Medal Colt club, when exhibits were judged by Dr. W. G. McDougall of Grove City.

Members of the club are awarded gold, silver and bronze medals for the best gain in weight of the colts during a year's period, provided their animals attain the accredited showing in the judging ring, 50 points being awarded for each.

The colts were weighed last year, which were entered in the contest, and again weighed at fair time. The colt gaining 600 pounds in weight, showing above all other colts exhibited was awarded a gold medal; those gaining 500 to 600 pounds and showing highest in the judging ring is also considered a gold medal colt.

Colts between 400 and 500 pounds in gain are considered silver medal colts, and those less than 500 bronze medal colts.

J. W. Anderson's exhibit topped the field, and was awarded a gold medal. All the other exhibitors placed in the silver medal class. They were Thomas Cooper of Scott township, Lawrence Thompson of New Wilmington, R. J. Crawford of New Wilmington and J. W. Martin and sons of North Beaver.

ERIE, Pa., Sept. 23.—Larry Woodward, 36, of Corry, Pa., and George Foster, 46, of Indianapolis, on Thursday were convicted as habitual criminals, the first men in Pennsylvania to be found guilty under a new state law, which makes life imprisonment mandatory.

Judge William E. Hirt withheld sentence in each case.

Foster pleaded guilty before Judge Hirt to previously having been convicted of four felonies, the required number to be classed as a habitual criminal. Woodward was convicted by a jury.

London "Sinking" Scientists Hear

Startling News That London Is "Sinking" Comes From British Official

(International News Service)

YORK, England, Sept. 23.—The British association for the advancement of science resumed its sessions today after hearing the startling claim that London was "sinking."

Buildings such as St. Paul's Cathedral and other famous structures in the heart of London are "tilting over", according to Capt. T. E. Longfield, of the British Ordnance Survey.

"There has been a very definite and measurable subsidence in central London," he said, "which has been going on with a fair degree of regularity since 1865. The Bank of England has sunk seven inches in the last 68 years."

APPLES AND PEARS GROW ON SAME TREE

(International News Service)

ASHLAND, Pa., Sept. 23.—Honors for fruitdom's neatest trick go to the horticultural phenomena at St. Michael's home at Mantzville where apples and pears are growing on the same tree.

Last year an aged German guest at the home grafted a pear sapling to an apple tree and much to the surprise of everyone who knew of the experiment, it grew and bore fruit the first year.

Families for miles around have visited St. Michael's home to witness the odd sight of different species of fruit growing on the same tree.

"Moses Honored In His Death"

"Brass Tacks" On The Sunday School Lesson

The Golden Text

Precious in the sight of Jehovah
Is the death of his saints.—Psalm 116:15.

By DR. ALVIN E. BELL

(The International Sunday School Lesson for Sept. 25 is the quarterly review lesson, Deuteronomy 32:48-52 34:5-8. The Golden Text being Psalm 116:15, 'Precious in the sight of Jehovah is the death of his saints.")

IF IT IS TRUE that every great institution is the shadow of a man, then Moses' greatness as a leader is attested by the fact that for 3500 years his shadow has given form and guidance to the institutions of both Judaism and Christianity.

Moses' life divides itself into three periods of 40 years each: 40 years in Egypt, "instructed in all the wisdom of the Egyptians," with his own mother his first and best teacher; 40 years as a shepherd in the very wilderness through which he was later to lead his people: 40 years as lawgiver, organizer and leader of the emancipated nation and mediator between them and Jehovah. Or, as Moody used to put it: "Forty years learning to be somebody: 40 years learning to be nobody: 40 years being the man God wanted him to be."

Moses' Death and Burial

Because of Moses' sin two years before in smiting the rock and taking credit unto himself for bringing forth water for the people, instead of giving glory to God for the miracle, it had been told him that he would not be permitted to cross over Jordon with the people. But Jehovah graciously tempered the judgement with mercy as he ever does with his children whom he must chasten.

The final summons, therefore, came to this greatest character of the Old Testament to be gathered unto his fathers: "Get thee up into this mountain of Abarim, unto Mount Nebo, which is in the land of Moab, that is over against Jericho: and behold the land of Canaan, which I give unto the children of Israel for a possession, and die in the mount whither thou goest up, and be gathered unto his people, as Aaron, thy brother, died in Mount Hor, and was gathered unto his people. Because ye trespassed against me in the midst of the children of Israel at the waters of Meribah of Kadesh in the wilderness of Zin; because ye sanctified me not in the midst of the children of Israel: "So Moses, the servant of Jehovah, died there in the land of Moab according to the word of Jehovah. And he buried him in the valley in the land of Moab over against Beth-Peor, but no man knoweth of his sepulchre unto this day.

The Valley of the Shadow

What a beautiful picture of death! Alone with God, and therefore not alone! "Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil; for thou art with me: thy rod and thy staff they comfort me." Gathered unto his people," "loved long since and lost awhile." This grave sanctified by the hand of God as undertaker, lies hidden east of Jordan, but we see Moses later on another mount west of Jordan, in the glory of Christ's transfiguration talking with our Lord of his cross. So the grave is not our goal. Speaking of Christ, Moses said, "The Lord, thy God, will raise up unto thee a prophet from the midst of thee, of thy brethren, like unto me; unto him ye shall hearken." Death spent itself in him. Therefore, the Christian can face it saying: 'O Death, where is thy sting? O Grave, where is thy victory?"

License Blanks One Month Late

Application Cards For 1933 License Plates Will Be Mailed On November 7

(International News Service)

HARRISBURG, Sept. 23.—Application blanks for 1933 license plates will be mailed November 7, a month later than in previous years, according to an announcement today from H. Richard Stickel, director of the Bureau of Motor Vehicles.

Stickel said that bureau had learned from experience that early mailing results in many of the applications being lost or misplaced. The later mailing date will permit motorists who change residence in September or October to notify the bureau.

Next year's plates will be the reverse of the 1932 color combination. The lettering will be in gold on an ultramarine background. The abbreviation, "Penna." this year below the numerals, will be at the top of the 1933 tags.

Start Defense Of Constable And Detective

Hecht And Ellison Claim Innocence Of Conspiracy Charges

COSTS RETURNED IN MANY CASES

Numerous Witnesses Tells Of Arrests And Later Money Refunding

Opening the defense of Morris A. Hecht, a Pittsburgh private detective trial in the Lawrence County Court for conspiracy, Attorney Goldstock one of his counsel told the jury Thursday afternoon that Hect was not only guilty of conspiracy, but that he had come into Lawrence County to help business people who were not registered under the Fictitious Names Act, that he had done it without thought of compensation and that the moneys collected in the way of costs had been given back.

The Commonwealth closed its case against Hecht and Ellison at four fifteen Daylight Savings Time. Attorney Thomas W. Dickey immediately opened the defense of Constable James H. Ellison in a brief talk to the jury telling them that Ellison had merely signed the informations at the request of Alderman William E. Marshall, that he had done nothing but his duty and that he was guilty of no crime.

Many Witnesses

Many witnesses were heard for the commonwealth. The afternoon session in Court Room Number Two opened with State Policeman James Brooks identifying several informations and stating that they had been changed after he had filled them out. The changes concerned the payment of costs and the settling of the cases.

Ralph Sussman of the New Castle Auto Wrecking Company testified to having been arrested and reporting to Alderman Marshall's office. He paid $4.25 in settlement of the case but got his money back.

H. O. Smiley, a former constable of Ellwood City told of meeting Hecht in Ellwood City. Smiley said he had been in a place of business there when the proprietor said he had just been arrested by a constable. When he asked who the constable was he said Hecht explained that he had made the arrest, and that he was not a constable but a State Detective.

Constable Costs

"How can you charge consatble costs when you are not a constable?" said Mr. Smiley. To this he said Hecht said that he would get a New Castle constable to sign his name to the information.

Marie Stapleton of the Beck Floral Company testified to having been arrested and charged $6.95 costs which she did not pay.

A. J. Khoury of the Chrystal Dry Cleaning Company testified to having been arrested and giving a check for $9.80. Later he said Marshall gave him back $9.80 in cash but he was not sure whether the check had been cashed or not.

Ethel M. Shaffer of the Colonial Beauty Shop testified to having paid $9.70 costs, which were returned to her.

L. E. Follette, proprietor of the Ellwood Second Hand Store, testified that Hecht had come into his store representing himself to be an officer of the State. He ordered him into the office of Alderman Marshall where he was told the costs in his case were $9.15 or jail. Follette said he asked for a few days time to get the money which was granted, and again asked an extension. He never paid the money.

Other Witnesses

Ed. Myers of the Pittsburgher Inn near Harlansburg, who was probably the first merchant to complain of the tactics of the officers in making the arrests testified that he had been charged $7.50 but had gotten his money back.

J. E. Carr got $7.50 costs money he paid, back.

Alice McKeever of the Charm Beauty Shop testified that she had been arrested but had shown that she was not now using the name Charm in her business.

H. E. Hutchison of the New Wilmington road was assessed $7.75 costs but received his money back he testified.

County Detective H. Martin Lee was called and testified that he had made a search for "Miss Ward" the mystery woman who was an accomplice of Hecht. She disappeared when the arrests were first made and has never been seen here since.

Eleanor Farrone was called but after a side bar conference between counsel was withdrawn without testifying.

Just before the noon recess Thursday, Attorney John H. Wilson of Butler was called. He testified that a Justice of the Peace of Butler County and Hecht had come into his office and Hecht explained what the set up of the arrests would be. He said Hecht explained that he was an agent of the Welfare Department of the State and that the woman he had with him was also an employee of that department.

Mr. Wilson said that after looking over the list of victims Hecht had he said to him that most of these were clients of his and that if he (Hecht) made any move to arrest them he (Wilson) would have him in jail in a hurry. The arrests were not made.

Shortly before the afternoon adjournment, Constable James H. Ellison took the stand in his own defense. He testified that he had signed the informations in the case but only at the request of Alderman Marshall. Ellison said that he had read some of them, that he had served none of them, and that he had had nothing to do with the arresting or refunding of the costs.

Some day, one of these telegrams starting, "I cannot tell you how pleased," etc., is going to be answered by an irritated "Try!"—The New York Sun.

General Martin Here October 1

State Chairman Of Republican Party To Visit New Castle

PUBLIC RECEPTION IS BEING PLANNED

General Edward Martin, State Chairman of the Republican Party and State Treasurer, today accepted the invitation of the Lawrence County Republican Committee to attend a county committee dinner here on Saturday evening, October 1. In a long distance telephone conversation with the county chairman, Senator George T. Weingartner, General Martin said that he would be here and would address the committee.

It has been many years since the chairman of the state committee has been here in his capacity as chairman. General Martin has said a number of times in the past two years that he wanted to come to Lawrence County and meet the members of the county committee, and was pleased that his affairs were in such shape that he could accept this invitation.

Public Reception

The County Committee will meet at six o'clock in The Castleton where dinner will be served the members of the committee and the members of the Executive Committee, and the Republican candidates for state offices who can attend. Several short addresses will probably be made but the main address of the evening will be delivered by General Martin.

Following the dinner, a public reception will be held in the lobby of The Castleton. General Martin has many friends in this city, particularly among the ex-service men. In the Spanish-American war he served as an enlisted man with New Castle men. In the World War he served as a commissioned officer, rising to the rank of Colonel in commande of the 110th Regiment of the 28th Division. He is now a Brigadier General of the National Guard and in a short time will probably be the commanding general of the division.

The reception will be open to the public and it is anticipated that hundreds will avail themselves of the opportunity of meeting General Martin.

Butler To Get New Postoffice

Aliquippa Also Added To List In This Congressional District

TO BUILD BOTH TO AID EMPLOYMENT

By ARTHUR C. WIMER
Special Washington Correspondent New Castle News

WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept. 23.—At least two and probably more new post offices for which Representative J. Howard Swick has been working will be constructed with money of the unemployment relief fund authorized by Congress last session.

The two new post offices in Mr. Swick's district which will be definitely included in the relief program are the Butler and Aliquippa buildings. With the 10 per cent slash in the limit of cost of all such structures demanded by Congress, the limit of cost stands at $168,300 for the Butler post office and $148,500 for the Aliquippa building.

In addition to these two large post offices several smaller buildings in the district, including the structure scheduled for Beaver, will probably be embraced by the emergency construction program.

Work on the new buildings will start as soon as possible with the preparation of plans and specifications coming first.

CROWD OF 80 AT PENNSY BENEFIT

E. & A. Corn Roast Draws From Other Points; To Help Relief

Besides maintaining well-groomed railroad rights-of-way, the Erie & Ashtabula division maintenance-of way forces of the Pennsylvania railroad proved to complete satisfaction Wednesday night that they apply their skill to other things. For instance, cornroasts.

Not one of the score of out-of-town Pennsy folks who came here last night to share a division-wide party with 60 New Castle district employs, regretted that they'd traveled far to get here. Nor did any of the locals.

The corn roast event took place in the Pennsy's assembly hall, over the local freight office. Officials and employes and their families attended.

Radio music furnished entertainment during the dinner and throughout the hours consumed by games. Prizes were given to winners.

Given for the Women's Aid as a benefit, the party was managed entirely by the M. of W. group, with O. A. Ishler as chairman. His assistants were:

Mrs. O. A. Ishler, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. DeArment; M. J. Paris, Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur C. White, Miss Irene Ubry, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hamilton, J. K. Davidson, all of New Castle, and Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Sipe of Sharon.

Proceeds collected last night will go to further the relief activities of the Women's Aid.

NINE BOYS CAUGHT; TO APPEAR SATURDAY

YOU would be astonished too, if you could see this machine that turns out 750 Chesterfields a minute . . . and every one as near perfect as cigarettes can be made.

But please bear this in mind. It is what happens before the tobacco goes into this machine that matters most. Rolling and packaging are important, but not nearly as important as the selection, blending and treatment of the tobacco.

That's why we keep telling you about the tobaccos used in Chesterfields. They're fine, mild, and pure tobaccos. We tell you about ageing and curing the tobaccos . . . about blending and cross-blending them . . . because they are things that count.

Chesterfields are milder. They taste better. Prove it for yourself . . . Just try a package.

F. O. E. Chieftain To Be Feted Here

Eagles' Grand Head Will Be Honor Guest Of Locals October 3

Grand Worthy President James Berrodin, supreme head of the 12,000 aeries of the Fraternal Order of Eagles, will come here on Monday, October 3, for a reception to be tendered him by the New Castle Aerie No. 455, local F. O. E. leaders today announced.

Berrodin's visit, marking the first call of a grand worthy president here, will bring about one of the New Castle unit's most elaborate Eagles celebrations in years, they said.

The grand worthy president will come here from his home at Akron. His reception will occur in the evening.

President George Anthony of the local aerie will head the committee charged with formulating arrangements. A complete roster of aides is expected to be announced later.

Word of the grand chieftain's coming was conveyed here by Past Grand Worthy President Charles Gunther, Pittsburgh, who paid a personal visit here this week.

Says Convention Of Legion Was Best That Has Been Held

Former New Castle Boy, Donald Mitchell, Writes Of Recent Event

According to a letter Mrs. Norris Mitchell of Highland avenue has received from her son, Donald Mitchell, who is now located in the state of Washington, the recent convention of the American Legion at Portland, Ore., was the finest that has ever been held.

The entire convention was an orderly affair, the delegates seemingly being in a serious frame of mind. He stressed particularly, the fact that there was very little drunkeness at the convention.

Mr. Mitchell was pleased to meet some of the delegates from New Castle and surrounding cities, some of whom he had known before leaving here.

The parade was a splendid example of how well the Legion does things, and was a spectacular event. It lasted from 11 o'clock in the morning until three in the afternoon.

Lottery Winners Offer Testimony In Federal Court

Two Women Who Won Money In Moose Lottery Give Testimony At Davis' Trial

By DAVID P. SENTNER
International News Service Staff Correspondent

NEW YORK, Sept. 23—Some of the "lucky number" prize winners of the Moose Charity Balls, alleged by the government to have been lotteries, were presented from the witness stand at the trial Thursday of U. S. Senator James J. Davis, of Pennsylvania, charged with violation of the national lottery laws.

Mrs. Mary Mychlin, of Astoria, N. Y. testified for the government that she had bought two fifty cent tickets for the 1931 ball for her two year old twin daughters and one of them won $5,000.

Woman Won $5,000

Mrs. Mychlin, with the excitement of it all still in her voice, testified she had the money put in trust for her daughter.

She said when she bought the ticket it had printed on it that $150,000 in prizes would be distributed, with $50,000 for first prize.

Mrs. Mychlin testified she didn't go to the Charity Ball.

Mrs. Catherine Hafner, of New York, testified she won $200 on one of 5 tickets she bought for the 1931 Charity Ball. A slim, good looking brunette, the witness said she got a check from the New York office of the Moose. She testified she had not attended the Charity Ball.

"Were you told you had a chance to win a prize?" U. S. Attorney Louis M. Treadwell asked. Defense counsel Charles H. Tuttle objected.

Federal Judge Frank J. Coleman sustained the objection.

Mrs. Hafner also testified to seeing the amount of the prizes printed on the tickets.

Admits Selling Tickets

Wilfred Weis, of the Bronx Moose Lodge, testified he had sold Mrs. Hafner five tickets to the ball. He said he kept five tickets himself, he said he didn't win any prize.

Betty Danvers and Harry A. Burden, employes of a post office substation in Scranton, Pa., identified receipts for parcel post packages of tickets.

Other witnesses from the two printing companies which printed and delivered the 1930 and 1931 Charity Ball tickets, and from traveling companies, continued to develop the alleged trail of the dance tickets labeled lottery tickets by the government.

Court was adjourned for lunch

TADPOLES COME OUT OF WATER FAUCETS

(International News Service)

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 23.—Hundreds of housewives in Germantown while preparing the evening meal recently were irked and ired to no small degree when droves of tadpoles paid them a surprise visit via the water faucets in the kitchen sink.

To a barefoot boy wading in a brook, the tadpole is harmless. But, when they come bounding out of water faucets as women are preparing an evening meal, it is a different story.

The water bureau was deluged with calls. Many of the city-bred housewives were mystified as to the identity of the little creatures.

Workmen were forced to open fire plugs in the vicinity to wash out the tadpoles. How they ever got into the pipes is somewhat of a mystery.

Final Warning Given Motorists By Police Chief

"There are many accidents occuring on the streets of the city at the present time' said Chief of Police John F. Haven today" and some of them have had serious results.

"Not all are due to carelessness or speeding on the part of the motorists" continued the chief, "but nevertheless there is altogether too much carelessness on the part of many motorists in the operation of their machines, especially in the matter of speeding along the thoroughfares of the city.

"We have endeavored to have the motorists cease this type of traffic violations and exercise more care through notices issued from time to time, but apparently it has not had the desired effect on many of the persons who should pay attention to these requests for sanity in the operation of automobiles.

"This is the final warning to motorists, who continue to persist in endangering the lives of others by their careless operation of their machines. From now on, it is up to the motorists to keep out of trouble, because those who persist in the careless, reckless manner of driving through the streets of the city, will pay the full penalty."

TROOP LEADERS NOW HAVE OWN PATROLS

The Girl Scout Leaders' Association decided at its opening meeting Wednesday evening at the Y. W. C. A. to operate this year as a Girl Scout troop. With the decision the members were divided into three patrols and Mrs. Ruth Ferver, Miss Jean McClain and Mrs. Earl Ruby were elected patrol leaders. Another patrol will be organized later.

Suggestions for future meetings were presented. Different phases of scouting will be taken up at the coming gatherings.

LARGE CROWD AT NEW CASTLE FAIR THURSDAY

Prize Winning Stock Parades

Judges Complete Work Of Making Awards In Keen Competition

COUNTY GRANGES HAVE FINE DISPLAYS

Fair Comes To Conclusion With Rodeo Performance Tonight

New Castle Fair, the best in many years, on Thursday enjoyed another successful day, with an attendance double that of the previous day and the largest crowd in many years at the local fair. Over eight thousand enthusiastic fair goers from Lawrence county and many points in Western Pennsylvania and Eastern Ohio were in attendance.

Exhibitors and concessionaries reported greatly increased numbers of spectators throughout the day. As on Wednesday, the races and rodeo were the center of attraction during the afternoon.

An increased crowd witnessed the evening performance by the Flying X Rodeo, which is more than living up to its advance notices and is proving a real attraction.

Featuring the afternoon program, was the parade of the prize winning horses and cattle along the race track in front of the grandstand. The event was in regular parade formation headed by the Basile South Side Concert Band.

The fair comes to a close this evening, when the final performance of the Flying X Rodeo will be put on at 7:15 Eastern Standard Time. The exhibits for the most part and the various merchants displays will still be available to the sight seeing throng this evening at the fair. This afternoon there are three good races and the usual performance of the rodeo.

One of the most interesting places in the entire fair grounds is the grange hall with four of Lawrence County's granges in competition in the display of fruits, fresh and canned, fancy work and all farm products. The displays are exceptionally fine.

Willard Grange First

The four granges in competition are Willard, Liberty, Westfield and East New Castle. Willard Grange took first honors with 98 points out of a possible 100. Liberty Grange was second with 89 points out of 100, Westfield Grange was third and East New Castle, fourth.

In the Willard Grange exhibit is a quilt of unique design and excellent workmanship that was made by the mother of J. A. Boak. It is about a hundred years old and was exhibited at Harlansburg fair fifty-five years ago, winning first prize then.

In the Liberty Grange exhibit was a linen table scarf made by a lady 82 years of age. It was one of the finest pieces of fancy work in the entire exhibit.

The fancywork and general display of articles made by hand in general competition was larger and better than ever this year. The display of quilts was unusually fine, one of the quilts, entered by a member of the Munnell family, while made many years ago, taking first honors as being the best example of quilting.

Rugs On Display

Homemade rugs of the display were of the braided, hooked and crocheted types and in this group the crocheted rugs of Miss Mary Morehead took first and second prizes. This victory of Miss Morehead is all the more pronounced when it is realized that her eyesight has been lost to her in this work for many years.

Another unique display was the silk cushion entered by Jennie Basile. It is in the shape of a heart and carries the national colors in a beautiful effect. Miss Basile designated it as a Bi-Centennial effort.

The 4-H club girls had a very fine display of their handiwork, which organization includes girls from ten to seventeen years of age. These girls had an unusually fine display of dresses, undergarments, kimonas, aprons and other articles of wearing apparel for girls made from feed bags. The finished garments were most excellent in appearance.

Stock Awards

In the exhibit of swine, the Wimer Stock Farm of Slippery Rock had one of the largest bores ever on exhibit at the fair. It was a Spotted Poland China bore weighing 900 pounds.

In the awards in Poland China swine, the Wimer Stock Farm received firsts in the senior sow pig, junior sow pig, first senior bore pig and junior bore pig.

CHOPPERS GET RAKE IN CENTER OF TREE

(International News Service)

HARRISBURG, Sept. 23.—A felled tree yielded a rake which had been imbedded at its center on the property of James Dietrich, Steelton. The tree, which was 35 years old, was sound at the base where the rake was found. Two men were cutting the tree for firewood when they made the unusual find.

Proud Mothers Pin 'Eagles' On Scouts At Court Program

Five mothers and wives of scouters stood on a platform at the First Christian church last night, holding gleaming silver badges. At a mute sign they bent down and pinned the Eagle awards on the breasts of the five boys who have recently qualified for the highest honor award of scouting. The scouts so honored were Ralph Davies of Troop V-15, William Shira, Robert Moore, Bud McCamic and Dick Hamilton, all of V-17.

Thacker Is Heard

B. K. Thacker, representing the council leader training committee, spoke of the training course the leaders of troops were enrolled in to perfect themselves in their work, and he spoke of the worth of the movement generally He then awarded twelve diplomas to the leaders recently cited for the course and congratulated the men on receiving these diplomas and urged them to go on to the final degree.

Dr. R. C. Lutz, scoutmaster of Troop V-37, presented a closing ceremony for a troop meeting or a court of honor, put on by a patrol from that troop. Howell Williams acted as senior patrol leader.

A number of scouts received merit badges for their achievements during the summer, these not having been awarded at camp. These included William Greer of V-10, advanced to first class rank, Bob Miner, V-17, cooking, cycling and photography; Robert G. Love, athletics and Life Scout rank; Dick Hamilton, cycling; Joe Lloyd, swimming and life saving; Ralph Davies,, bird study, camping, handicraft and music; and from V-37, Bobe Cole, pioneering, Jim Gravenstreeter, bird study and cooking, and Howell Williams, pioneering. Veteran 1 presented Dave Evans, swimming and personal health, and Harry Falls, leathercraft and public health.

Davis Presiding Head

Commissioner R. F. Davis officiated for Rev. Bennett.

The coming county contest was mentioned and troop scribes asked to be prepared to start their troop reports October 1. The north district Scout Leader Club meeting for September 29, was also mentioned. The plan of having the Eagles get together and work up an Eagle ceremony was announced, and will be discussed later.

Rev. Bennett will soon announce the date of the October session. Awards made at this will count points in the contest. Merit badge counselor lists are being prepared, and scouts will be asked to deliver the letters to the counsellors for their formal acceptance of this service.

Verdict Of Guilty In Driving Case

Considerable Conflicting Testimony In William D. Nickel Case

After being out all night the jury in the case of William D. Nickel charged with operating a motor vehicle while under the influence of liquor, brought in a verdict in county court about 11 o'clock today in which the defendant was found guilty. There was considerable conflicting testimony regarding the case.

Nickel claimed that he was not intoxicated and was not even driving the car. Other witnesses in the car with him gave similar testimony. On the other side there were witnesses who had seen Nickel getting out of the car on the driver's side when the car was stopped on Neshannock avenue. Tipstaff Thomas Hinkson, who sat at the jury room keeping vigil all night, employed his time reading a history of Lawrence county.

He saw a man running and gave chase and finally landed Charles Hudson, Negro, whom he found in hiding. Hudson was taken today before Alderman Wallace J. Ewing, where Chief of Police John F. Haven made a charge of malicious mischief against him.

Hoover To Get "Dry" Support

Four Organizations Announce They Will Actively Support President

NEUTRALITY BY SOME OBSERVED

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, Sept. 23.— Four national dry organizations will actively support President Hoover for re-election despite their disapproval of the Republican national platform and the president's own liquor plan, it was disclosed here today.

They are Allied Forces for Prohibition, National Temperance Bureau, Flying Squadron Foundation and the Friends Temperance Society.

Other dry organizations of lesser note also will aid the Republican candidate, while some of the important dry bodies have declared neutrality, according to dry leaders here.

Declarations of neutrality already have been announced by the National Board of Strategy, representing 39 dry bodies, and the Anti-Saloon League of America. The Methodist temperance bodies headed by Bishop James Cannon, Jr., and Dr. Clarence True Wilson, have declined to support the president.

Roosevelt Seeks Aid Of Johnson

Makes Plea In California For Support Of Republican Vote

PRAISES SENATOR JOHNSON'S WORK

By GEORGE R. HOLMES
International News Service Staff Correspondent

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 23.—Gov. Franklin D. Roosevelt's campaign for the presidency was directed into a definitely new channel today, as the Democratic nominee boldly and pointedly made a bid for the Progressive-Republican vote of the great West.

It was the Progressive vote of the West that elected Woodrow Wilson in 1916—California did it—and Gov. Roosevelt plainly has decided to make his appeal to the same independent vote this year.

Here in Mr. Hoover's home state, where political discontent is as rampant as in other sections of the country, Gov. Roosevelt is making literally a spectacular bid for the support of such independent-Progressives as regularly re-elect Hiram Johnson to the senate.

The Democratic nominee went pointedly out of his way to pay tribute to Senator Johnson. He described him in Sacraento as "a man who has done so much to further progressive thought and courageous public action, and long a warrior in the ranks of true American progress."

Gov. Roosevelt's praise of Senator Johnson was in marked contrast to the action of Charles Evans Hughes when he came to California in 1916. Hughes ignored Johnson and chose to fraternize with John's Republican enemies in the state. Hughes lost California by 4,000 votes—and lost the presidency, for California decided it.

SHOCKING!

Dorothy, attending church for the first time, was surprised to see the people about her kneel suddenly. Turning to her mother, she asked what they were going to do.

"Hush, darling," whispered her mother 'they are going to say their prayers."

"What! with all their clothes on?" said Dorothy.

Elastic banded push-up sleeves for evening wear are approved by well dressed women.

What is the PRICE OF BEAUTY?

Without health there can be little natural beauty. The wise woman knows that the condition of her body shows itself on her face, her complexion, and in her eyes.

She takes care to avoid constipation. This treacherous ailment frequently causes headaches, sallow skin, pimples, premature aging.

Try the pleasant "cereal way" to protect yourself from constipation. Science has proved that Kellogg's ALL-BRAN provides "bulk" to exercise the intestines, and Vitamin B to tone the intestinal tract. ALL-BRAN also furnishes iron, which helps build up the blood.

The "bulk" in this delicious cereal is much like that of lettuce. How much safer than abusing your system with pills and drugs — so often habit-forming!

Two tablespoonfuls daily will correct most types of constipation. ALL-BRAN is not habit-forming. If your intestinal trouble is not relieved this way, see your doctor.

Lawrence County Farms And Farmers

By H. R. McCulloch, County Agent

DRAMATIC TOURNAMENT

Pennsylvania agriculture, like that of other states, is troubled with the economies of farming. "To these challenging economic difficulties we must give heed, but agriculture is a life as well as a livlihood. There is poetry as well as production on a farm. We need something to preserve the art of rural life while we battle with the economics of farming. I don't mean that you can disguise a bankruptcy with a poem, or write a comedy that will laugh a mortgage off the barn, but we cannot overlook farm life when we seek to make the most of creative tal - ents."

This is the sentiment back of the enterprise in thirty-six counties in Pennsylvania in which rural organizations are going about the job of providing "Homemade Happiness." At this season these rural groups are preparing for their annual rural dramatic contests. In these contests any rural group is eligible to present a one-act play given by its own members.

The activity is being directed in Lawrence County by a representative committee composed of the following:—H. A. Leslie, Enon Valley, chairman: Irwin Ropp, New Bedford, Secretary and Miss Frances Fullerton of North Beaver. The agricultural Extension Association is lending its assistance to this program.

Mr. Ropp, Secretary of the Committee suggests that any interested organization that may not have received complete information regarding the tournament, can do so by writing him or inquiring at the Agricultural Extension Office.

A copy of the rules and a list of the suggested plays are available on request. All entries must be made with the secretary not later than October 1st.

The tournament will be held some time in November. The prospects are that Lawrence County will have a number of groups competing.

COW TESTING ASSOCIATION REPORT

Two hundred and ninety nine cows were tested in the Lawrence County Cow Testing Association during the year closing September 1st. There were 18 herds in the Association during that year. Following is the average production and feed cost for the Association:

Average per cow:
Pounds of milk—6243
Pounds of butterfat—287.6
Percent of butterfat—4.61
Value of product—$131.10
Cost of roughage including pasture—$32.78
Cost of grain—$29,28
Total cost of feed—$62.06
Value of product above feed cost—$69.04
Return for $1.00 expended for feed—$2.11
Feed cost per 10 pounds of milk—$1.00
Feed cost per pound of butterfat—$.22.

The above figures do not represent the actual cost of producing milk as such items as depreciation, land rental and cost of delivering milk are not included in these averages.

Mary, the Registered Jersey Cow belonging to E. C. McClelland, of North Beaver Township led the association in the individual cow production by producing 8,772 pounds of milk and 570 pounds of butterfat.

Seven herds produced an average of over 300 pounds of butterfat for the year. These herds belonged to Lauren Thompson, and Milo Moose and Son, Wilmington township: J. A. Boak and Sons, Slippery Rock Township; R. W. Hartenbach and Arnold Bros., of Beaver County: J. W. Martin and Sons and H. L. McCurley and Son of North Beaver Township.

HOUSE PULLETS BEFORE WEATHER HURTS HEALTH

Many of the early hatched pullets already are in the laying house.

The question, "When should the remaining pullets be moved from the range?" can be answered by saying that it is a safe practice to house all pullets before cold, wet fall weather begins.

Colds and allied troubles often start while pullets are on range in the fall. The rapidly developing pullets can well be housed when they show evidence of starting to lay provided laying house conditions are suitable. The late-hatched and slowly developing pullets will be benefited by being left on range as long as the weather remains favorable.

It seems wise to change from growing to laying mash before the birds have laid many eggs. In fact, it is a safe practice to make any change, if possible, before this period. Any change after production starts, unless it is very gradual may result in a partial molt and drop in production.

FERTILIZING WHEAT IS GOOD BUSINESS

On account of low grain prices and hard times many farmers are trying to reduce expenses by omitting fertilizer.

Some reduction along this line may be safe, but wheat has responded better and more consistently to fertilizers than any other general farm crop. When wheat is fertilized the clover and grass following also are benefited, so that returns continue.

Wheat fertilization demonstrations conducted on farms all over Pennsylvania have shown an average increase of between 6 and 7 bushels an acre from the application of 200 pounds of 16 percent superphosphate. This is a profitable return even when wheat is 60 cents a bushel, and would warrant borrowing the money for fertilizer. Heavier applications of superphosphate have not been very profitable; but less than 200 pounds an acre seems to be poor economy. The effect of the superphosphate usually is very evident in the clover and timothy the following year.

Superphosphate alone seems to be adequate fertilization for wheat on good soil, especially when grain prices are low. Where wheat follows oats or corn, and where no manure has been applied the past year, it often pays to apply both phosphate, and potash in an 0-12-5 mixture at the rate of 200 to 250 pounds an acre. The potash often will help the wheat as well as the following clover, in the absence of manure. Nitrogen, the least profitable element on wheat seems to have little or no effect on clover. Its use under present conditions, except possible on poor soils, may be considered questionable economy.

Proper fertilization not only increases yields but helps materially to prevent winter-killing especially of late-sown grain. The fertilized wheat ripens earlier and usually is plumper and of better quality.

SAVE SEED CORN

Owing to to drouth and insect attacks, many corn fields have grown only small ars. In a year like this however, a well-matured small ear saved for seed will produce as good a crop next year as a larger ear harvested in a favorable year. In fact, it may be even superior, because the weak individuals largely fail to produce an ear at all. Plants of the greatest vigor were able to produce, so one should hesitate to select the best and store it properly.

Those who do not have corn from which to select seed this year can use last year's seed, even from the crib. This is in good condition. However, one year old seed usually is a few days slower in coming up, and usually it is preferable to use seed from the most recent crop instead of from the previous year.

September Is Typhoid Month Records Show

Condition Has Existed For Years In Pennsylvania, Statistics Reveal

RULES FOR SAFETY BRIEFLY OUTLINED

HARRISBURG Sept. 23—September has long been known among health workers as the month when typhoid fever is at its highest incidence among adults, and when enteritis and kindred complaints record the greatest number of cases among young children. The yearly figures of the State Department of Health in Pennsylvania, will show this condition to have existed for many, many years.

It often happens in making up a year's typhoid record, it will be found that as many cases are reported to the Bureau of Communicable diseases in September as were reported for the entire first six months of the year. Indeed, during the year 1930, there were a greater number in the single month of September than in the first half year.

The heavy incidence continues for the five months of July, August, September, October and November, with an occasional year when December will show more than a normal number of cases but the months of vacationing, traveling and spending days, weeks and months away from home are the months when typhoid is at its height. Hence it is associated with that condition, and has become fixed in the health worker's mind as a disease that is contracted during absences from the normal home life.

The conditions surrounding enteritis and other intestinal diseases in children are found to be the same, and doubtless come from like causes. So that the tragedy is presented of families leaving home for pleasure and for a little time to "get away from it all" and returning with serious illness, and oftimes death, as a result of their pilgrimage.

Avoidance of raw milk, water supplies of unknown quality and food supplies that may have been exposed to infection, are three of the rules of safety that will help to lower both the case rate and the death rate from typhoid and enteritis.

HECHT SAYS NO AGREEMENT MADE TO "SPLIT COSTS"

and that he would expect the alderman to extend the courtesies of his office to him.

Inquired if he had done any business in New Wilmington he replied that he had. Asked how he happened to pick up the name of the Volant Garage he said that he was passing through the town on his way to Mercer, intending to go by way of Leesburg. He had merely noted the name of the Volant garage as he passed. Asked if he had secured any names of places in Mercer, he said that he had not.

Hecht said that when he turned in the places doing business under ficticious names to Marshall, he did not know what Marshall would do about it. All that he knew that they were not complying with the act of assembly. He said that he had no previous conversations with Marshall and Ellison about how costs were to be divided, and that he did not get any of the money.

Answering further questions by District Attorney Powers, Hecht stated that he did not sign the informations, as he had no authority to do so.

Asked regarding a Miss Ward, who had been mentioned in connection with the cases, Hecht said that he did not know her at all, and that there were no women working with him. He did not recall ever having met Miss Ward.

In answer to a question as to whether or not he had talked to some of the persons against whom prosecutions were made in Alderman Marshall's office, he said that he had. He explained this by saying that he happened to be in the alderman's office when the persons came in, and as he was familiar with the fictitious names act the Alderman had asked him to explain the matter to the defendants. The alderman, he said, was busy in one room of his office, and he had talked to the defendants in another room. He said that he was not to get paid for this, but was merely doing it out of courtesy to Marshall.

Denies Butler Angle

Asked if Attorney John Wilson of Butler had not told him that if he arrested any of his clients he would be put in jail, Hecht said that no such a threat had been made to him. He said that he had gone to see Wilson with Justice of the Peace Nevin of Zelienople, but that the conversation in the attorney's office was between Nevin and Wilson.

Asked regarding names which he had turned in from Ellwood City he said that he had picked them up as he drove through to Zelienople.

When arrested Hecht said that he had been questioned by District Attorney Powers, Detective Lee and State Policeman Brooks, but that it was a long time before he was able to learn what charge had been made against him.

He denied that he had made representations that he was a state man, working from Harrisburg, but said that when referring to himself he had always stated that he represented the State Detective Bureau of Pittsburgh.

Asked if he had not told officials that Constable James Ellison had got him into this trouble, he replied that he had not.

Considerable further questioning regarding the cases and the fines, failed to change Hecht's testimony that there had been no agreement on the splitting of costs in connection with the prosecutions.

The case is still in progress.

Girl Official Of Mouse Club 'Just Loves Them'

(International News Service)

BIRMINGHAM, Eng.—Mice may spell terror for most women, but for one young blonde Birmingham maiden they are just "cunning little dears" and she loves them.

The young lady is one of the officials of the exhibition organized here by the National Mouse Club.

Four hundred mice, most of them housed in elegant cages, were on exhibition here. Many women were among the admirers.

The young lady explained the various grades of prize mice.

"This," she said "is what we call a champagne—really a chocolate diluted with white—and he may be a champion."

Before a mouse can belong to this class he must have certain qualifications. They are:

Good muzzle, large tulip-shaped ears, long, strong tail, regular markings, good size, shape and condition.

Invalid Builds His Last Resting Place

Has No Near Friends But Will Have Good Sepulchre

(International News Service)

EDGARTOWN, Mass., Sept. 23.—When Gabriel sounds his trumpet on the general judgement day as the Bible says, John Bent will arise from one of the most unusual yet attractive sepulchres ever seen in this Cape Cod region.

Bent, broken in health, resulting in two years' confinement at a hospital, has prepared an elaborate layout for his last resting place. Alone in the world, having no living relative, he was determined to have his own resting place should the inevitable occur before he is ready.

The sepulchre lies in one of the most prominent sections of Edgartown cemetery. Ordering a special cement from New Bedford, Bent set about his task. The corner stones, curbing and tablet were made with painstaking care. The inscription "Pray for the soul of John Bent" was inscribed and a blank space left for the day to be inserted after death. Hundreds of smooth, white sea stones were gathered from the island's beaches and studded through the curbings.

FAMOUS GHOST IS SEEN IN ENGLAND

(International News Service)

HULL, England, Sept. 23.—A confirmed sceptic was convinced of the existence of ghosts when the famous "Monk of Battle Abbey" appeared again here.

For a wager of 50 cents the sceptic, J. W. Wilcockson, passed a night in historic Battle Abbey.

He entered the crypt with a smile of scorn on his lips. He was carried out several hours later in a state of collapse.

"Shortly after midnight," Wilcockson told his rescuers, "I saw something move in the shadows at the far end of the crypt. I could not take my eyes off this terror. It seemed about five feet high. There was no face. That seemed the most hideous part. I collapsed and they carried me out. Enough of ghosts for me. I believe in them now."

Poor Directors Will Convene

Unemployment relief will be the main topic of discussion at the 57th annual convention of the Association of Poor Directors of Pennsylvania which opens in Harrisburg on October 3 and continues through the 5th. In addition, a conference on social welfare will be held on October 3 as a supplement to the convention.

The convention opens Monday evening with Governor Pinchot delivering an address of welcome. Addresses will be made by outstanding welfare workers of the state. As far as is known Lawrence county will not be represented in the convention.

City To Allow Wall Construction

Council today granted Carl Hall, acting for the owners of the Johnson building, permission to erect a wall on the east side of the Neshannock creek. It will cost about $3,000, make a straight flow of water beneath the Washington street bridge and provide employment, he said. He will now have to secure permission from the state Water Power and Resource board.

DRY CRUSADER BEGINS NEW DRIVE AGAINST WETS

(International News Service)

WESTERVILLE, O., Sept. 23.—For 40 years he has been "starting things" and because he is "too old to quit now," Dr. Howard Hyde Russell, the white-haired man who founded the Anti-Saloon league in 1893, is about to launch a new fight on the propaganda of the wets.

"Prohibition at its worst," recently declared Dr. Russell, his eyes lighting up with the fire of youth he had when as a young pastor he founded the famous temperance organization at Oberlin, O., "is far better than the saloons at their best."

NEW WILMINGTON, Pa., Sept. 23.—With 593 students registered, Westminster College's enrollment for the first semester has set a new record, Dr. J. A. Swindler, registrar, announces. With students still registering, it is possible that enrollment may go up to 600.

Of the 593 registered up to Wednesday evening, 327 are upperclass students, and 266 are new students, most of whom are freshmen. About 16 are transfers from other colleges and universities.

Last year the registration at Westminster for the first semester was 527, and the net enrollment for the year was 562. The 1929-1930 enrollment was 541. Enrollment during the 1928-29 year was 553.

This year's enrollment includes 50 students from Ohio, mostly from Youngstown, Akron, and Cleveland districts; 18 from New York state; two from New Jersey; two from Massachusetts; and one each from Illinois, Michigan, and Kentucky.

Almost 250 of the new students enrolled are freshmen. So large has the enrollment been of first-year students that the department of English had to make nine sections of freshman English classes, the department of Bible had to make six large class divisions, and dormitory facilities for women students are taxed almost to capacity.

STRUCK WITH AX; VICTIM IS DEAD

AMBRIDGE, Pa., Sept. 23.—Seriously cut and beaten with an ax on May 22, in a quarrel with a fellow shanty-dweller, Louis Goich, 68, died in the Rochester General Hospital. Goich was admitted to the hospital at the time of the affray suffering from a fractured skull and nose, eight broken ribs and a punctured lung.

His alleged assailant, Charles Martin, 40, was arrested and held for a court on charges of felonious assault and battery.

The assault occurred, Martin told police, because the older man "refused to chop firewood fast enough."

EXPLAINS ACTUAL DOG BITE DANGERS

HARRISBURG, Sept. —A dog bite from an animal that does not have rabies is not dangerous, said a statement today from the bureau of animal industry, Pennsylvania Department of Agriculture. "In fact it is much to be preferred to a wound inflicted by a rusty nail," the bureau officials explained. "The wound may be cauterized with hartshorn (strong ammonia) after which the person should see a physician. Never have a dog that bites you shot, otherwise you will never know if it had rabies at the time of the bite or not. The dog should be kept confined under observation for ten days, during which time it will either show definite symptoms or gain a clean bill of health.

"There is absolutely no foundation for the belief that persons bitten by a dog which months later becomes rabid, may contract the disease. The animal must be afflicted at the time the victim is bitten. Rabies is more common in early spring. The idea that it is more prevalent in Dog Days is absolutely incorrect. Heat has nothing to do with it. Every animal or person bitten by a rabid dog does not necessarily develop the disease. According to one authority only 15 per cent of those so bitten and not treated have hydrophobia. This is an hysterical age and persons of a highly nervous temperament and excitable disposition when bitten even by a normal dog sometimes exhibit symptoms comparable to rabies because they permit their minds to be terrified by fear of possibilities. Such a condition is called Lyssophobia. When a diagnosis of rabies is made on the dog, the individual should go at once to a physician for treatment."

Girls' Pool Classes Planned By Y. M. C. A. Board Approves Change

City's Association Takes Formal Action To Inaugurate Change

CONTINUE MEN'S WORK AS BEFORE

Swimming pool facilities for women and girls of the community, as well as men and boys, will be offered by the city's Young Men's Christian Association when its 1932-33 season opens on Monday, October 11, General Secretary R. L. Meermans announced, following special consideration by the Y. M. C. A. board.

Approved whole-heartedly by the board's own physical department committee, the new plan won instant sanction when the directorate convened for a final discussion.

New Policy Here

While the women and girls' swimming work has long been carried on by different western Pennsylvania Y. M. C. A.'s, the introduction of it here brings a broad expansion in the policy of the local association. Its adoption was greatly speeded by the closing of the pools at the Washington and Franklin schools.

General Secretary Meermans, in a formal statement, outlined the action of his board to the situation:

"When the New Castle board of education decided to discontinue the use of the school swimming pools, our board realized immediately that women and girls would have no swimming place this winter. Many of the local women have availed themselves of the priviledges of swimming at those pools and so would naturally feel the loss of this privilege.

"The board felt that at a time like the present the Association should do everything in its power to make its equipment of use to as many members of the community as possible."

Plan Gets Study

Meermans' said the board referred the matter to its physical department committee with instructions to work out a solution whereby the girls' work could be promoted without interference to men and boys' work. The committee quickly fulfilled its task, and now has a complete schedule ready for women and girls.

As it stands, two days a week will be given over to girls between the ages of nine and 16 years of age and for women who may be interested in swimming or receiving such instruction.

"This type of work is not new to the Y's of western Pennsylvania, although the local Association has never granted this priviledge to the women and girls," Meermans further explained. "We have only one purpose in this action, and that's to offer a service which no other organization will be able to give local women and girls this winter."

The men and boys' program opens with the girls' work on October 10. Classes are now being arranged and supervision planned.

Catarrhal Deafness May Be Overcome

If you have catarrh, catarrhal deafness or head noises caused by catarrh, or if phlegm drops in your throat and has caused catarrh of the stomach or bowels, you will be glad to know that these distressing symptoms may be overcome in many instances by the following treatment which you can easily prepare in your own home at little cost.

Secure from Eckerd's of New Castle, Inc. or your druggist 1 oz. Parmint (Double Strength). Take this home and add 1-4 pint hot water and a little sugar. One tablespoonful four times a day should quickly relieve distressing catarrhal head noises, clogged nostrils, difficult breathing and dropping mucous, and improve hearing. All victims of catarrhal deafness or head noises should give Parmint a trial.

Insull Utilities Losses Increased

Report Of Receivers Shows Huge Losses Sustained By Insull Investors

PREFERRED CLIENTS LIST IS PRESENTED

(International News Service)

CHICAGO, Sept. 23—New losses, approximating $100,000,000, were today added to the staggering reverses suffered by Insull investors as the result of filing of the receiver's report on the corporation securties company.

The statement was submitted to federal district court late last night a few hours after states' attorney John A. Swanson exposed to the public scrutiny a list of 205 "preferred clients" in another Insull chain, the Insull Utility Investments, Inc.

Further sensation had been provided La Salle Street financial circles by Federal Judge Walter C. Lindley, who, sitting at Danville, adjudged both investment trusts—the Corporation Securities and the Insull Utility-bankrupt.

The corporation securities, a $150,000,000 concern founded by Samuel Insull just before the stock market crash, was characterized as "hopelessly insolvent" in the report of the receivers, Patrick J. Lucey and Raymond F. McNally.

Listing in the balance sheet indebtedness amounting to nearly $15,500,000 to New York and Chicago banks, the report showed that the only asset on hand was $30,725 in cash, the proceeds from the sale of board of education tax anticipation warrants. This shortage of fund hampers the work of auditing, the receivers said.

In making public his list of "preferred clients" which contained the names of such prominent figures as Owen D. Young and Gerard Swope, board chairman and president respectively of the general electric company, the state's attorney said no decision has yet been reached as to what use he will make of this information.

Return To Work On Postoffice At Pittsburgh, Pa.

End Of Strike Will Affect Other Lines Of Industry In District

After almost continual bickering since July 18, the strike of hoisting engineers on the new Pittsburgh post office has been settled and the 200 men who have been kept out of work since then are returning to work.

The strike was called when union men insisted that they would not work as long as twenty hoisting engineers of the Pittsburgh Gravel Company were employed. This has now been adjusted so that the gravel of the company is delivered to the Aronberg-Fried Company's floats and by them delivered to the job.

The ramifications of the strike were many. Other lines of industry in western Pennsylvania were hampered by the delay, among them the Lehigh Portland Cement Company of New Castle. Failure to ship out the 75,000 barrels of cement ordered for the job resulted in the stock bins being filled and the plant suspended operations. The end of the strike will aid in the resumption of the plant it is thought.

More Delegations For Tabernacle

Several Denominations To Gather At Evangelistic Service This Evening

DR. PHILPOTT WILL DISCUSS OBEDIENCE

Evangelist Recovering From Cold Which Has Handicapped Him

"Does It Pay to Obey" will be the sermon subject this evening when Dr. P. W. Philpott, evangelistic speaker, addresses the audience in the Tabernacle tent on South Mill street.

Delegations from the various congregations have been attending the meetings each evening this week, and this evening the Episcopals, the Christians and the Christian and Missionary Alliance Members and adherents will occupy the center section of seats, which are reserved for the special delegations.

Thursday evening the Baptists, Lutherans and colored churches of the city sent delegations to the city-wide revival services, which are being held nightly in the Tabernacle tent on South Mill street, and the center section of seats, reserved for delegations, was filled with these people.

The colored choir, under the direction of Arthur Thomas, sang several numbers, and the singing of "Bread of Heaven" by the choir, was most marvelous, and as A. W. McKee sang a solo, the hum of the large audience, which filled the edifice, was a fitting accompaniment.

Evening Sermon

Dr. P. W. Philpott, evangelist, who has been suffering all week from a severe cold, was somewhat improved, and his voice was distinctly heard in all parts of the tabernacle.

His sermon topic for Thursday evening was "The Man Who Won But Lost" and his scripture lesson and text were taken from Genesis 13.

Dr. Philpott's sermons have a wealth of faith, a warmth of sympathy and a depth of understanding which moves the human heart and his story of Abraham and Lot was most convincing as it brought out the points of his discourse.

He said the strife over material things, the grasping greed and selfishness that was shown in the Old Testament story was truly significant of the modern day. The ancient Christian men were the same type as our modern men.

He went on to say that poverty causes a lot of misery and suffering, but on the other hand, prosperity causes much unhappiness and sin, covetousness and strife.

He concluded his discourse by saying that "Godly Contentment is the Greatest Gain."

LETTERS TO THE NEWS

Letters Intended For This Column Must Be Signed With Name And Address Of Writer

INTERESTED IN BOAK'S LETTER

Dear Editor:

I was much interested in the letter published in the New Castle News, September 15 which was written by Mr. Boak.

The need of retrenchment and economy, in spending the tax money is great. We have to meet our bills and pay off these stupendous debts. In order to do this, many sacrifices will have to be made and we will have to do without many things, temporarily.

I am glad Mr. Boak feels the same way as I do about many of the voting places. There is no sense in keeping up precincts where only 16 to 26 votes are cast in the last primary election.

The board of elections of Mahoning County Ohio, saved $4000 by consolidating small voting places in the city of Youngstown, Ohio.

There are many other ways of saving if we but look closely for them. I suppose Mr. J. A. Mosely is still gauging the Shenango River and sending the results to Harrisburg twice a week. Although he says its costs the taxpayers nothing, I think it would be a good thing to knock off on that on general principles.

I live in Mahoning Township, a township for which there is no good reason for its existence. The Mahoning river is the logical and should be the real boundary line between North Beaver and Pulaski Township. It would be cheaper and better for all concerned.

Many things could be temporarily suspended to the advantage of the great majority until the average tax payers income is more equal to his tax burden, such as the air mail city and rural delivery. There are few rural communities but could get their mail once a day by neighboring. There are few city families but some member is near the main office or some substation every day.

Few families of either the city or country would pay directly out of their own pockets what it costs them indirectly to have their mail delivered. And the air mail! Who would be injured by its temporary suspension.

These are but a few of the many ways that economy could be effected at once.

Why not mention a few of these ways in the columns of the News from time to time as they occur to our minds?

ARTHUR WRIGHT.

The way to heaven out of all places is of like length and distance. —Sir Thomas More.

G. O. P. Managers Watching Iowa

Fear Demonstration May Be Attempted On Occasion Of Hoover's Visit

PRESIDENT WORKS ON IOWA SPEECH

By GEORGE E. DURNO
International News Service Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, Sept. 23—Republican managers have been keeping a constant finger on the pulse of the "farmers' holiday" movement in Iowa ever since announcement that President Hoover would make his first campaign address in Des-Moines on Oct. 4.

Information reaching the White House indicates the president may be subjected to an unfavorable demonstration on the occasion of his farm belt invasion. All possible steps are being taken by his political associates to prevent any such occurrence.

Plan Protest

Scouts who attended the convention of the Iowa Farmers' Union in DeMoines have reported that the ruralists are in an ugly mood. Both John A. Simpson, national president of the union, and Milo Reno, president of the National Farmers' Holiday Association, exhorted the delegates to turn out "200,000 strong" on the occasion of Mr. Hoover's arrival and protest the existing order of things. Intimations of "revolution' and "dictatorship" were heard in the course of their addresses.

Just what manner of audience the president will address at Des Moines remained a mystery today. National chairman Everett Sanders wired the original announcement of the speaking engagement from Chicago without specifying what group or organization was to be addressed. Theadore Joslin, secretary to the president in charge of press relations, admitted he didn't know, and apparently all arrangements for assembling the necessary crowd were in the hands of Chicago headquarters.

Hoover Prepares Speech

Mr. Hoover meanwhile was devoting considerable attention to this all-important speech. Senator Dickinson (R) Iowa, is making an analysis of Gov. Roosevelt's Topeka address, in which the Democratic agricultural policies were outlined, and this is to be woven into the president's statement of position on the farm problem.

According to Secretary Joslin, however, the executive will not confine himself to farm relief but will undertake a broad discussion of "the issues of the day." It was not considered likely the final proofs would be ready for the printer until after Gov. Rosevelt's speech at Sioux City on Sept. 29.

Denied Re-Hearing By Pardon Board

Frank Port, convicted of arson in connection with the burning of a house on the New Castle-Ellwood road, was denied a re-hearing on his pardon application by the pardon board, which met at Harrisburg yesterday.

CAR IS STRIPPED

Expect Ruling In Davis' Case

Court To Decide If Books Of Propagation Department Can Be Subpoenaed

GOVERNMENT HOLDS RECORDS ARE VITAL

By DAVID P. SENTNER
International News Service Staff Correspondent

NEW YORK, Sept. 23.—A ruling by Federal Judge Frank J. Coleman of vital importance to both sides was expected today at the resumption of the trial of U. S. Senator James J. Davis of Pennsylvania, former director general of the Loyal Order of Moose, charged with violation of the national lottery laws.

The point at issue concerns whether or not the books and records of the "propagation department" of the Moose, headed by Theodore G. Miller, also under indictment, can be subpoened. The question of whether Miller can be asked to testify about these records is also a supplementary issue.

If the records are permitted to be entered into evidence, the government alleges that they will show that the defendant was aware of the activities of the department which handled the promotion for the two charity balls, claimed to be a lottery scheme by the prosecution.

Large Commission

Miller, and Bernard C. McGuire, promoter, of Aurora, Ill., are alleged to have had a contract with the Moose whereby they obtained a large commission from the proceeds of the two charity balls.

McGuire, also under indictment, has been linked through evidence already presented with the distribution of the tickets.

Miller, when called as a government witness, refused to answer questions on the ground that it might tend to incriminate him. He declined to permit the prosecution access to his records.

In the event that Judge Coleman rules adversely to the government's motion for obtaining the records, two examiners who went over the books will be called and a legal attempt made to get their testimony admitted.

Margiotti Opposed

Charles J. Margiotti, of Punxsutawney, Pa., chief counsel for Davis, indicated he would oppose any such move.

The prosecution will continue its presentation of financial transactions of the former secretary of labor by which they hope to develop their charge that he obtained $172,000 from the proceeds of the charity balls.

The sum is comprised of four transactions, according to the government—of $100,000, $15,300, $17,000 and $40,000.

The prosecution has presented evidence showing that a $150,000 note guaranteed by Davis was reduced by $100,000 in the form of three checks from the account of Fred W. Jones, treasurer of the "organization department."

It is alleged Jones was "the catspaw" of Davis and a document giving him power of attorney in the financial affairs of Davis has been submitted in evidence.

A deposit slip showing the deposit of a check for $15,300 to the personal account of James J. Davis, also has been introduced. The government contends this was in the form of a check endorsed by Jones.

HOPE THEY PITCH TILL TIMES GET GOOD

ROCHESTER, Pa., Sept. 23.—An attempt to set a new world endurance record for horseshoe pitching was started Thursday by six members of the East Rochester volunteer fire department. As a cannon boomed out over the East Rochester athletic field the first shoe was pitched. Three judges were sworn in by Burgess Harris Kramer.

The men, all unemployed, will live in tents. Lights will permit pitching after dark.

Countries where modern machinery has led to overproduction and unemployment should learn from China, where there is no modern machinery, and people do not suffer from unemployment; they just perish from famine, plague and flood. — The Ashland Daily Independent.

Highest Quality of Coffee Is Assured to Public

Each buyer of coffee at a Clover Farm store has undoubtedly noticed the fine flavor and rare aroma of the coffee purchased.

Clover Farm, Green Cup and Red Cup, each in its class is the finest coffee, blended differently to suit the individual taste. It is a pleasure to tell the public how Clover Farm stores select, blend and roast their coffee, the sales of which are steadily increasing, due to the fact that the public is fast learning that no better flavored coffee can be had anywhere at any price.

The costs are lower because of the constantly growing volume, and any one of the respective brands will please the most discriminating buyer.

The roasters of coffee sold in Clover Farm stores draw their supplies mostly from the high lands of the state of Sao Paulo, Brazil, and from the slopes of the Andes mountains, sometimes as high as 7,000 feet above sea level. The former is known as Santos coffee and the latter is Columbian coffee, which is the highest quality coffee that can be obtained.

Coffee must be freshly roasted and realizing this, all coffee sold in Clover Farm stores must be blended, roasted and shipped from strategic points.

ENORMOUS GROWTH OF CLOVER FARM STORES

Due to Organization, Co-operation and Centralized Buying

Clover Farm stores form a closely-knit organization, adding to individual ownership of stores, the best principles of successful modern store operation. Through centralized buying, supported by experts in many states and with distributing headquarters in large centers, the choicest food products are secured for their customers at the lowest possible cost. These savings are passed on to Clover Farm customers.

The second factor is that along with individual service, Clover Farm stores have the support and co-operation of experts in store layout, display and management, so that these owner-managers are able to operate their stores in the most modern way. These two reasons explain the popularity of Clover Farm stores and their constantly increasing growth.

Co-operation is the tool that builds business and nations. Co-operation has entered the business and has made it possible for individual retailers to serve their communities in competition with the biggest organizations.

Clover Farm stores are carrying out the principles of co-operation successfully. Through modern store organization, these independent grocery stores work closely together to give their customers food products at popular prices. Through such co-operation they have become most modern of all retailers. This co-operation extends to other groups of Clover Farm stores in many cities and big distributing organizations in other states and makes it possible for the local Clover Farm stores to get their supplies at low prices. This same spirit of co-operation is then carried to the consumer by selling him these products at the lowest prices for merchandise of finest quality.

Thus the Clover Farm stores through co-operation between customers and stores, between local units and the national organization, assure choice food products, plus friendly individual service.

Eighty 'Alley Rats' Share 17th Reunion Dinner Here

The "Alley-Rats"—you'll find doctors, lawyers and business chiefs among 'em—converged on scenic Camp Ne-Ca-Hi near Muddy Creek Falls, Thursday, for their 17th annual reunion and "chin-fest" over long-past New Castle days. The "Rats" meet yearly.

Close to 80 prominent residents and members from out of town were present during the afternoon and evening to enjoy once again the fellowship of the "pals" they ran with almost a score of years ago.

An athletic program occupied the entire afternoon, while the annual reunion dinner in the evening topped everything as the high light feature. Then in the evening came the swap of stories.

"Alley Rats" members are New Castle men who chummed together here back 20 years ago. They returned yesterday from New York, Cleveland, Youngstown, Pittsburgh, Donora, Niles and a host of other places.

"Fritz" Harlan heads the organization.

(International News Service)

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 23.—Philip C. Staples, chairman of the Philadelphia county emergency relief committee, today termed "pitifully inadequate" the $2,500,000 loan to Pennsylvania for relief purposes in Philadelphia, Allegheny and Northampton counties by the R. F. C.

Staples, commenting on reports from Harrisburg that the state emergenccy relief board will ignore the stipulation the fund be alloted to the three counties, and divide it throughout the state, said that will mean disaster.

Illinois Mine Resumes Work

(International News Service)

TAYLORVILLE, Ill., Sept. 23.—Peabody mine No. 9 at Langley, idle since Aug. 19 when pickets persuaded miners in the Midland area to suspend work, resumed operations today under the $5 a day wage scale recently signed by the United Mine Workers and the Illinois coal operators association. About 247 men went down.

Two infantry units and a machine gun troop of the Illinois National Guard "stood by" to prevent any disorder. Two machine guns were mounted across the road from the mine entrance ready for any emergency.

After the miners entered the shaft, most of the highway police were withdrawn and ordered to patrol the roads leading to the mine.

HOPE TO FIND OIL IN GAS TERRITORY

(International News Service)

WELLSBORO, Pa., Sept. 23.—Opening of an equally rich oil field in a region already famous for its gigantic natural gas wells is the hoped-for result of a series of drilling tests announced by a group of operators here.

Four wells are planned by Morley Queen, Harry N. Sherwood, of Wellsboro, and Thomas Flaherty, Bradford. Drilling will be in the Marsh Creek valley.

Small oil wells have been brought in from time to time during the last generation in the Gaines-Watrous section west of Pere, but excepting the first few wells drilled none have been spectacular.

Says Medical Inspectors Must Examine Pupils

School Inspectors Urged To Refrain From Practice Of Nurses Doing Work

HARRISBURG, Sept. 23.—Calling attention to Section 1501 of the School Code, Dr. J. Bruce McCreary, Deputy Secretary of Health and Chief of the Bureau of Child Health, of the State Department of Health, has directed all school medical inspectors in the state, to refrain from the practice of having school nurses, or indeed any nurses, make physical examinations of pupils in connection with the routine visits of the medical examiners to the public schools.

The Code says that "medical examiners shall be authorized physicians, legally qualified to practice medicine in this commonwealth, who have had at least two years experience in the practice of their profession." Section 1505 provides that the inspector "shall carefully test and examine all pupils in the public schools, giving special attention to defective sight, hearing, teeth or other disabilities or defects specified by the Secretary of Health."

If the medical inspector desires the services of an assistant, who is not a legally licensed doctor of medicine, he or she can be used only in the presence of and under the personal supervision of the school medical inspector, and not otherwise, according to Dr. McCreary.

Loss Of Revenue Cuts Service

Superintendent Moore Of Car Company Appears Before Council

T. C. Moore, superintendent of the New Castle Street Electric railway today appeared before council relative to the charge that Owl street car service had been abandoned.

He said that service of the Owl street car had proved a losing proposition but that service had been abandoned in part only.

Moore declared that it had been discontinued between 2:15 a. m. and 4:40 a. m.

He said a check taken over a period of three weeks showed the fares paid an average for Owl service between midnight and five a. m. was $2.45 which left an operating deficit.

Moore said that with the return of Eastern Standard time one car will be restored to service and there will be a lapse of service for only one hour and 45 minutes.

He said that with the return of industrial activity he would be pleased to restore the former full Owl service.

Council took no further action as Moore said the only lapse would be between 2:15 a. m. and 4:30 a. m.

Here's New Plan To Gain Health

(International News Service)

ALLENTOWN, Pa., Sept. 23.—If you want to remain healthy and spry, heed the advice of H. A. Rahn, 67, of Phoenixville, and "hang around" horse stables.

He thinks it's best to buy a horse, but if you don't have the money, just "hanging around" stables will do.

Rahn, whose horses raced at the Allentown fair, has been busy with horses for the past forty years.

"Owning a horse gives a fellow a lot of exercise and keeps him out in the open air," he says.

"But, there is another thing about owning a horse, you have to hang around stables. That's healthy for you.

"The ammonia that comes out of the stable is the best indigestion medicine you can get."

Broad Recovery In Stock Market

Rails And Utilities Lead In Day's Upturn Of Stock Prices

By LESLIE GOULD
International News Service Financial Writer

NEW YORK, Sept. 23—The rails and the utilities today led the stock market in a broad recovery in which yesterday's losses were regained.

Led by the Volatile Lackawanna, the carrier shares advanced 1 to 4 points in heavy trading. N. Y. Central was the most active issue in the group, with Lackawanna a close rival. Others scored substantial gains.

A sharp advance in Consolidated Gas was the signal for resumption of bullish activities in the power and light stocks. Specialties put in a strong performance with United Aircraft running up more than 3 points.

The strength in the rails followed expectations tomorrow's car loadings report would show traffic at a new peak for the year. The meeting of the eastern rail heads on the four-party merger here today was another stimulating influence.

Bonds were better after yesterday's decline on weakness in special issues. Commodities did little, wheat marking time and cotton recovering an early loss of $1 a bale.

Profit-taking was frequent but brought only temporary interruptions to the advance. Volume was lower than in the last two sessions, though still running around 3,000,000 shares for the day.

U. S. Steel Common snapped back about 2 points and the Preferred 3. Bethlehem was another strong spot. A slight improvement in Youngstown operations helped the rise.

Oils were still under pressure, reflecting yesterday's gasoline price cut by Standard of New Jersey. Coppers did little.

Farm implement and mail order shares were sluggish on wheat's failure to do anything.

Motors were better, stimulated by reports of better than seasonal sales this month. General Motors was active and brought a sharp rise in Du Pont. Chrysler was another active favorite. Bendix was strong in the accessory list. Auburn ruled 2 points or so higher.

CHARLEROI, Pa., Sept. 23.—Five years ago Charles McKee lost his watch.

He searched without success for the prized timepiece, the gifts of his grandfather on McKee's twenty-first birthday.

Recently he found an old suit in the attic of his home and in the vest pocket was the missing watch.

Canebrake, a reedy grass, attains a height of from 10 to 30 feet.

Make Survey Of District Streams

Interstate Survey Of Ohio River And Tributaries Is Started

HARRISBURG, Sept. 23.—Dr. Theodore B. Appel, secretary of health ,announced today that field work was begun early in September on Pennsylvania's part in the interstate sanitary survey of the Ohio river. Others participating cooperatively in the work are: Ohio health department, West Virginia, Kentucky and Indiana health departments and the United States Public Health Service. W. L. Stevenson, chief engineeer, Pennsylvania state department of health, will have charge of the work for this commonwealth.

Dr. Appel stated that the purpose of the survey is twofold: First, to find the facts necessary to safeguard the water supplies derived from the lower Allegheny and the Ohio rivers; and second, to ascertain the sanitary condition of the Ohio river as it is affected by the sewage and industrial wastes of the Pittsburgh metropolitan area. To find the effect of this pollution on down river water supplies, is a matter of very great importance.

Sewickley has been selected as the field base from which bacteriological and chemical mobile laboratories will operate in the survey.

Wagons, Bicycles Must Carry Lights

HARRISBURG, Pa., Sept. 23. — With the 1932 Daylight Saving Period at an end, bringing dust an hour earlier in most communities, the Pennsylvania Motor Federation, state unit of the A. A. A., today called attention to the law that requires wagons and bicycles to carry lights and warned of the dangers of walking on highways in suburban and rural sections after dark.

"Thousands of people who, under Daylight Saving, reached home before dark will find that, with the change in time, dusk is upon them before they realize it," said S. Edward Gable, president of the federation. "Motorists will be required to turn on their lights an hour earlier, but drivers of wagons not equipped with lamps, or persons riding bicycles having no lights will not find it so easy to meet the changed conditions during the homeward bound rush of traffic in the evening. Everyone who drives a car realizes how difficult it is to discern the form of a wagon, a bicycle or a pedestrian on the highway at night. There is no law requiring pedestrians to carry lights, but provision is made in the motor code for bicycles and wagons."

Congregation Says Farewell To Mission Workers This Morning

Members and friends of Misses Cecelia Lewis and Sallie T. Botham assembled at the Christian and Missionary Alliance Gospel Tabernacle on Pearson street this morning to wish them God speed and a safe journey into the heart of Africa.

These missionaries are not starting out on their maiden trips as missionaries, but both are seasoned workers, knowing just exactly what hardships they have to endure and what privations they have to suffer, but gladly they go through these anguishes to carry the gospel to those in darkest Africa who have never heard the name of Jesus, and only the missionaries themselves know what a task it is to convert these people from their heathen beliefs.

The congregation sang "Blest Be the Tie That Binds" and Dr. P. W. Philpott, who was at one time an adherent to the Alliance church, read the 91st Psalm, and the automobile in which they are driving to New York was dedicated to the work of the Lord. This car was a gift from friends in California. The missionaries are also accompanied by a cockerel spaniel, and the dog, from the joy he seemed to express in his excitement this morning, is going to enjoy the trip.

The women were presented with many farewell gifts as they started out today. They will drive to Johnstown and visit a day with Miss Lewis' brother and from there they will go on to New York and will set sail September 29 from New York City on the S. S. West Humshaw, Barber line, and will reach port in France, where they will report to the French government before proceeding on to Faranah via Conakry, French Guinea, French West Africa, where their mission field is located.

They will arrive at their destination some time in November.

Forzen In The Ice In September!

Hail storms in Missouri are not common in September, so half the populace of Sedalia turned out, soon after this photo was taken, to get a look at this car, which became stuck in the ice. The machine, driven by Hugh Janes, ran into the drift and stalled.

Americans Endangered By Chinese Fighting In Tibetian District

Eight American Men And Women Huddled In Barricaded Home To Escape Bullets

Mission Is Almost Completely Ruined, Pittsburgh Man's Sister Imprisoned

Americans endangered ....

By JOHN GOETTE

International News Service Staff Correspondent

PEIPING, Sept. 23—Belated messages from Betang, in far off Tibet, revealed today that a group of Americans of the United Christian Missionary Society have been caught in the center of a fierce siege between troops of China and Tibet for the past two months. The Chinese and Tibetians have been engaged in a war on the eastern border of Tibet for two years.

A dramatic description of the eight American men and women huddled into one house whose windows are bricked against the crossfire of the Oppoing forces, has managed to get through the city walls to International News Service.

Await End of Siege

The missionary community bravely awaiting an end of the siege of the Chinese garrison by the Tibet attackers is made up of Dr. N. H. Bare, M. H. Duncan, R. A. Peterson and their wives and Mrs. J. C. Ogden and Miss Grace Young.

Although in Tibetian territory the Chinese troops held Batang, but the Tibetan forces moved up for the attack. The Chinese at once seized the mission hospital and school for a fort from which they could fire down upon the city. Immediately the Tibetans occupied two of the American residences and the orphanage and converted them into strongholds from which to direct assaults upon the hospital and school.

The night following bombardment of the hospital, the missionaries watched the Tibetans storm the Chinese positions in the light of flares, but they were driven off.

Mission Damaged

The stars and stripes continue to fly over this battleground of Tibetans and Chinese, but the American property is sadly ruined. While the missionaries dare not show themselve openly long enough to inspect damage they realize the buildings of mission have suffered from fire and pillage. When the siege is lifted it will be nothing short of a miracle if there is a stitch left besides the bare brick walls of what was once a modern hospital, orphanage, school and respectable American dwelling houses.

Await Soldiers

PITTSBURGH, Sept. 23—Arthur F. Ogden, brother-in-law of Mrs. J. C. Ogden, reported by International News Service to be trapped in a Chinese-Tibetian cross-siege, revealed today that no word had come from the besieged missionaries since last July.

At that time, Ogden said, his sister-in-law wrote that the mission buildings had been seized by troops. The missionaries were in desperate straits, she said and were hoping for the arrival of soldiers to escort them out of Tibet.

Ogden said he understood the mission station is the most remote in the world.

The police pursuaded her to return to her home from the street where they found her, but they had no sooner taken her home, than she came out and disappeared in the wooded hillside between Neshannock boulevard and Neshannock avenue. The police searched for her and also called upon Fire Chief H. Clare Stockman, who came with a large searchlight, which was used in searching the district but without result. The police authorities late today stated that they had no report to the effect that Mrs. Williams had been seen or returned home.

Believe Camels Lived In Nebraska In Miocene Age

(International News Service)

DENVER—The skeletons of a herd of eleven camels, found in Nebraska, three million years ago, will soon adorn the halls of the Colorado Museum of Natural History here.

The camels, although built almost the same as the modern camel common to the Sahara desert, are much smaller. The Nebraska pre-historic creature stood only three feet high.

Proof that the camels lived in Nebraska when that country was a desert of fine, blowing sand, comes from the strata of sand in which the fossils were found. They were native of the Miocene age, according to Director J. D. Figgins of the Museum.

KING'S CHEF REVEALS FAVORITE RECIPE

(International News Service)

ROME, Sept. 23.—Here is a recipe given by Commendatore Pettini, first cook to King Victor Emanuele 3rd of Italy. It makes a dainty dish to set before a king and yet it is quite simple.

Peel and stone ripe apricots putting in the place left by the stone a lump of almond paste. Roll them in finely powdered biscuits, dip them in the beaten yolk of an egg and then in fine bread crumbs. Melt butter in an earthenware, fireproof shallow dish, put in your apricots and fry them fast. Drain in the usual way and serve with fine sugar flavored with vanilla.

Home of Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Hamilton, 501 West Madison avenue, with E. C. Hulbert leading.

Observations In 7th Ward

Although the crash could be heard over the business section Thursday morning the only casualty when two cars came together in front of the postoffice was a severed bumper.

Good races, good exhibits and good crowds. That seems to be the verdict of Paul Gilmore, Pat Scanlon, Dr. Vincent and the scores of others from here who have been out at the New Castle Fair grounds this year.

Another garden robbery has been reported to police, and an enjoyable time will not be had by the youthful thieves if they are found. It was a Newell avenue garden that was plundered Wednesday night.

OHIO LEATHER GETS BIG ORDER

Nashville Firm Signs Contract For 1,000,000 Feet Of Calfskin

YOUNGSTOWN, Sept. 23.—An order for 1,000,000 feet of calfskin, requiring the pelts of about 85,000 calves, was received by the Ohio Leather Co. yesterday from the Jarman Shoe Co., Nashville, Tenn.

The order will help to stabilize operation of the Girard plant, which employes about 800 persons at near normal. The plant is now operating between 75 and 80 per cent of capacity, President Victor J. Lumbard said.

"The order reflects the general improvement in the shoe industry," Mr. Lumbard added. "For the last few weeks shoe manufacturers have been swamped with orders from retailers. While the order calls mostly for the cheaper grade of shoes requiring cheaper grades of leather the quantities are very large. Demand for the medium and better grade shoes is not near so good."

New Castle—McKees Rocks Play Tonight

SCHOOLBOY TEAMS READY FOR BATTLE AT TAGGART FIELD

Starting Time Of Second Game Is 8:30 O'Clock Both Teams Are In Fine Shape

Coach Bridenbaugh Satisfied With Team After Week Of Intensive Training

Storm warnings have been properly posted in the vicinity of Taggart Stadium, and tonight Coach Phil H. Bridenbaugh will unloosen the strings of his "Red Hurricane" and send them helter skelter over the greensward of the spacious arena in search of the second victory of the grid season. McKees Rocks high will be the opponents. The game is scheduled to start at 8:30 o'clock. This is a change over the starting time of the first game.

Fleet Backs.

The wings of victory tonight have been pinned on "Whitey" Nickum, Johnny Uram and Freddy Lane, all of them speed merchants as are speed merchants and broken field runners extraordinary. The full-backing will be in the hands of Joe Kolodjeski and Steve Kominic, and two more rugged boys never pulled on the red and black moleskins.

The fans will find a real spectacle awaiting them at Taggart Field. Last week they thought New Castle looked good, but just wait till you see those "Red Devils" go lumbering out on that white chalked surface tonight. A week more of practice has added a lot of prestige to that New Castle team. They are charging faster and ever so deceptive.

McKees Rocks Fast.

Little is known here of the strength of this McKees Rocks team, other than the fact that they are big and fast and are bent on defeating New Castle, a trick that is seldom done and considered an honor. The big blue and white band of suburban players have been training hard for the past several weeks, and are in shape for the game, which happens to be the first of the year for the Rocks crew.

Scouts who saw New Castle defeat Union last week hurried back to McKees Rocks with tales of the big lads that play for New Castle and how they devoured a little school in what looked like an easy game, but in reality it wasn't. Anyhow the McKees Rocks coach got down to work and let the boys know that all fooling would cease and that some means of stopping that big red wave must be perfected.

Well tonight will tell the tale of whether or not the scouts were right and whether or not the players took to heart what the coaches told them.

Same Prices Prevail.

The same prices will prevail for this game tonight as at the opening game. Seats are from 10 cents for kids in the southern section to 75 cents for the best seats for adults in the center section of the concrete stands.

Better get there early tonight, because there is going to be a crowd, the folks who didn't get to that Union game have heard about this "Red Hurricane" and are anxious to see them in action.

The agtes will be opened at seven o'clock, and you can start getting your seat any time after that. The players will be out about 8 o'clock for a litle warm-up, and meanwhile you can sit and enjoy the strains of "Hail to Alma Mater", or something like that by the high school band, with Patton directing.

New Castle High ended their training for the McKees Rocks game at Taggart Field last evening with a stiff signal drill. Coach Bridenbaugh is starting the same lineup that faced Union.

Captain Paul Reider of the University of Pittsburgh team was an interested spectator at the practice and also gave his advice about several plays and in general helped his former coach in giving the players little pointers. The New Castle team had a lot of dash and pep last night.

McKees Rocks under Coach Carl McHenry, finished their training yesterday afternoon. They will arrive here early tonight.

Sharpsville To Play Bessemer

High School Football Teams To Clash At Sharpsville Saturday

Bessemer and Sharpsville high schools will play Saturday afternoon at Sharpsville, according to announcement today. Bessemer dropped the first game of the season to Lowellville which was a bigger team and composed mostly of veterans from last year. Throughout the week Coach Fredericks has drilled his team in the hope of strengthening the line and checkmating air play.

Princess Volo Wins 2:20 Trot

Princess Volo Wins Third And Fourth Heats To Win At Fair Grounds Track

BILLY H AND CONFIDENCE WIN

Four heats were required Thursday to decide the winner of the 2:20 trot, Purse $200, the first event of the second day's harness horse race meet at the New Castle track. David Thornton, Fasnacht in the buggy won the first heat in 2:13 1-2, the second went to Susan E with McMillen driving in 2:14 1-2 and Princess Volo with Olin handling the reins carried off the third and fourth heats being timed in 2:14 1-2, and 2:16. Billy H won the 2:15 pace, Purse $200 and Confidence captured the 2:15 trot, Purse $200. Today's calendar of three events will conclude the racing card which has been raced and handled superbly.

In the 2:20 trot which went four heats before the bay mare flashed from behind at the three quarters pole to nose ahead of Susan E and win, it looked in the first heat as though Susan E would be the class of the field. At the half she led but tired and David Thornton, a black gelding, finished ahead of her. Tom Fox secured third place, the three horses being several sulkies ahead of the rest of the field. Time 2:13½.

The field was bunched in the second heat at the half mile post but at the five-eighths pole Susan E stepped ahead. Princess Volo gave her a great race but couldn't reach her before the wire. Betty Volo, owned by Bert Case got third place and the time of the heat was clocked at 2:14 1-2. In the third heat Princess Volo, Susan E and Tom Fox, finished one, two, three in 2:14 1-4.

Takes Decisive Heat

It was decided to race the three heat winners and at the half mile Princess Volo and David Thornton were neck and neck. At the three quarters turn Susan E hit a faster stride pulled ahead of David Thornton but couldn't flash enough speed to catch Princess Volo who won the heat and race, being timed in 2:16.

Billy H, a bay gelding, driven by Bennett won the 2:15 pace. After finishing sixth in the first heat which was won by Lady Peterkin, Billy H captured the second and third heats. The time was 2:11 1-2 and 2:14. After the first heat was taken by Lady Peterkin, Cal Moon, driver said his horse had been injured and withdrew her.

In the first heat of this race, the 2:15 pace, Foxy McKinney, McMillen driving Lady Peterkin, Moon in the surrey and Jack Cope, Chaffee handling the reins were out in front at the half. Lady Peterkin pushed Foxy McKinney hard and she tired. Coming down the home stretch Lady Peterkin forged ahead and won by a head in 2:10.

Foxy McKinney had a good stride in the second but was hard shoved by Billy Hood followed by Napoleon Brother at the half. Billy H maintained his pace to win the heat. Foxy McKinney tired and was overtaken by Napoleon Brother and Paul Neyron, who finished second and third, respectfully. The time was 2:11 1-2. The distance between Billy H and the third horse, Paul Neyron was only a sulky length.

Good Finish

In the third and final heat the race was between Billy H and Foxy McKinney. The latter lost by a length in 2:14. Jack Cope made a great try but could do no better than third place though the bay gelding made a great attempt to overhaul the leaders.

The first quarter of the first heat of the 2:15 trot was raced in 33 seconds. At the half, Martha Potempkin, McKay driving, was ahead of Worthy Jack and Francis Willis. Francis Willis with Walter Johnson driving, tired and slowed down. American Boy, McMillen driving, came on fast. He passed Martha Potempkin and Francis Willis. May Dean also trotted by Francis Willis but there wasn't much space between the first five horses, Worthy Jack, Moore driving, taking the heat in 2:11.

In the second heat the field of 11 horses were bunched like bananas at the half way post, with Worthy Jack only a head in the lead, Chaffee handled Confidence, and on the home stretch applied the whip and won the heat from Worthy Jack. American Boy took third place and Martha Potempkin came in fourth. The time for the heat was 2:11, the same as the first heat.

The first half of the third heat of the 2:15 trot appeared as though it would be won by Francis Willis, Walter Johnson driving or Martha Potempkin. Confidence, the black gelding was apparently in a hole but Chaffee drove him through at the three leaders reached the five eighths pole. American Boy came on lightning fast to overtake and pass Martha Potempkin and Francis Willis and at the finish was only half a body in the rear of Confidence who won the third heat in 2:11 1-4.

There will be three races Friday, the first of which is docketed to start at one o'clock eastern standard time. The calendar today will conclude the meet which has attracted the biggest crowd in years.

Blair Strip Wins Golf League Title

Rieck-McJunkin Team Unable To Gain On Leaders In Final Match

Blair Strip Steel won the New Castle Golf League title last evening at the Municipal course, when they eked out a 4-2 victory over the Pennsylvania R. R. team, while Rieck-McJunkin defeated South Side Merchants by the same score.

The Rieck team had to annex five victories while the Blair Strip was losing the same number in order to take the league championship, an almost impossible feat.

The league plans to hold a little blow-out at the Municipal club house next Thursday evening, for players who have taken part in the matches during the summer. Team captains are asked to notify Secretary Walter DeArment of the number from their team who will attend by Wednesday. There will be a feed, followed by cards and a social period.

The scores last night and final standing of the league, follows:

Dentists, 4, Bell Telephone, 2; Reynolds, Summers and McCann, 3½, Pennsylvania Power, 2½; Rieck-McJunkin, 4, South Side Merchants, 2; Shenango Tin, 5; New Castle News, 1; Blair Strip Steel, 4, Pennsylvania R. R. 2; Pennsylvania Engineering Works, 6, bye.

Union-Evans City To Play Saturday

Union High Will Have Strong Evans City Team As Opponents Here

Scotland Lane Field Has Been Improved By Fence —Game Starts At 2:30 P. M.

Coach "Dave" Boyd topped off a week of intensive drills with his Union high football team by holding a signal practice today in preparation for the second game on the Union schedule Saturday afternoon at Scotland Lane with Evans City high as opponents. The game starts at 2:30 p. m. daylight time.

This is the first meeting in football of these two schools, and each would like to make a good showing. Coach Gregory of Evans City has a heavy team, good passers and punters and they hope to take the measure of the Unionites tomorrow. It will be the opening game of the season for the Butler countians.

Two New Men.

Two new men will grace the Union lineup other than the ones who started the New Castle game. They are Schaas, a backfield man, and Weimer at end. Both men are inexperienced, but have shown enough stuff in practice this week to warrant a chance at a starting assignment. The rest of the Union lineup has undergone considerable switching around. Captain Walter Sniezek is showing up well at quarterback, and feels right at home. He uses a good assortment of plays and backs up the line in nice shape. Monico and Schaas will have the halfback posts, with Phillips at fullback. In the New Castle game Phillips was used at center, but likes his new post and will give a good account of himself.

The Union squad rested Thursday from the strenuous drills of the past week. Today a light signal drill will top off the program.

Fence Around Field.

The Union Township Athletic association has placed a wire fence around the playing field, and this will make the game much better, as the spectators will not be able to crowd the field as heretofore. Faculty Manager Floyd Geigher is making plans to handle a big crowd at Union field. Evans City will bring quite a large crowd of loyal supporters to New Castle.

Union high hopes to break into that victory column tomorrow afternoon, and judging by the enthusiasm shown by the players in their workouts this week they are going to vindicate themselves for that beating at the hands of New Castle last Friday night.

The probable lineups:

Union High		Evans City
Weimer	R. E.	Laberer
Stockman	R. T.	McKeever

Cuba To Start In Pitt Lineup

Three years of good hard effort on the part of Paul Cuba has earned for him a starting berth on the University of Pittsburgh football team, according to Captain Paul Reider. Both Reider and Cuba visited their homes here last evening.

Cuba for two years served as a reserve tackle and played against such good men as MacMurdo, Quatse, Love and others, and still they couldn't keep him out of the picture. Today his efforts are rewarded by a starting post at tackle along with Bob Hoel tough sophomore. Meredith and Love find themselves on the reserve team.

New Castle is well represented on the Pittsburgh football teams this year with Reider, Cuba at Pitt, Ostrosky at Tech, Ciccone, DeCarbo, Augustine and Standish at Duquesne.

Scarazzo And Hillsville Clash

Play Doubleheader At Centennial Field At 2 P. M. Saturday

Scarazzo defeated Mahoning 9 to 3 yesterday on the E. & A. field and Saturday will oppose Hillsville in a doubleheader at Centennial field. The first game will start at two o'clock, D. S. T.

The victory yesterday was the fourth consecutive win over the Mahoning A. A. It won the series for Scarazzo.

Hillsville met Mahoning in a series for the Twilight championship.

With the teams tied they entered the fifth game which was brought to an abrupt end by a squabble.

The umpire-in-chief awarded the game to Mahoning and the commission ordered the game finished.

Mahoning refused to abide by the decision and continued with the series with Scarazzo which they lost.

Hillsville was booked for a doubleheader tomorrow and no doubt there will be a big crowd of their followers to see the twin bill.

RYANTOWN TO PLAY CASTLETONS

Ryantown and Castletons will play a twilight game at 5:30 p. m. D. S. T. today. This will be the deciding game of the series. Each team has captured one game.

Westminster To Meet Slippery Rock Team Saturday Afternoon

(Special To The News)

NEW WILMINGTON, Pa., Sept. 23.—Coach John Lawther's Westminster College football team plays Slippery Rock State Teachers' College on the home field Saturday afternoon at 2:30. It will be the second game of the season for the Titans, the Lawthermen having lost to Duquesne University at Pittsburgh last Friday night.

Coach N. K. Thompson of the Teachers will probably start all veterans against the Titans, although five or six sophomores will be included in the lineup. Coach John Lawther will start the same team which faced Duquesne with the exception of Robert Rose, guard, in place of John Brown, guard.

Last year Westminster had a hard time defeating Slippery Rock by a 6-0 score, while two years ago the Titans won by a 25-0 count. This year's Teacher eleven, which reported one week ago to start training, is still a "dark horse."

McCarthy And Grimm Are Both Real Managers

Chicago Fans Will Honor Former Manager And Present Manager Alike

ARE POPULAR ON BASEBALL FIELD

By WILLIAM L. COLLINS
International News Service Sports Writer.

CHICAGO, Sept. 23.—Charley Grimm: "The Yanks are a good club. So are the Cubs."

Joe McCarthy: "The Cubs are a good team. So are the Yankees."

Just two chattering managers giving prolonged interviews. Neither of them could ever be charged with word extravagance.

McCarthy Pleased.

McCarthy's return to Chicago as a world series contender is a personal triumph and satisfaction for Joe. For it wasn't long ago that Joe was ignominously handed his walking papers as manager of the Cubs, after taking the team from mediocrity to a National league pennant.

The Cubs' dismal failure in the 1929 series against the Athletics nettled the late William Wrigley, Jr., and sent Joe a-packing.

His dismissal near the close of the 1930 season was unpopular with the fans, however, and his return during the coming series as manager of the American league champions will be heralded by his north side admirers.

No Comparison.

And those same admirers are on the "spot". For their loyalty to Joe conflicts with their rabid loyalty for the Cubs and Charley Grimm.

A comparison of Joe and Charley is almost impossible, for Joe was never any great shakes as a ball player. In fact, he never made the majors.

And Charley is a neophyte in the managerial game, his experience as strategist being limited to the seven weeks he has managed the Cubs. It must be written, however, that his tactics during that period were anything but amateurish.

Both are leaders, possessing that indefinite quality which compels their men to battle to the last ditch. Both are fighters. And both are idolized by the fans, the bleacherites—which after all is the final test.

HERE AND THERE IN SPORTS' LAND

Arthur E. Sheffield, the new king of American trapshooting who by vocation is a railway mail clerk at Dixon, Ill., hopes to do better next year when he competes in the Grand American handicap. Peculiarly, Sheffield participated in the 1917 meet and after the shoot said he was through. For 11 years he left the weapons untouched but the trigger finger became itchy and five years ago the gunner started a new war on claybirds.

He met with a measure of success and won the 1931 Illinois state handicap title yet he entered the national shoot of 1932, a comparative unknown. He wasn't regarded as a threat. With 721 gunners competing against him he broke 49 of the first 50 and at the 75 mark he led with 74. Bettors thought he would crack and he broke 24 of the next 25 clay birds for a score of 98 and it was then that he got the recognition due.

Bill Terry, manager of the New York Giants, has a lifetime batting average of .342 compiled in nine seasons of playing. His best year was 1930, while a member of the Giants. He walloped the horsehide for a percentage of .401. In 1924, his first year in New York he hit .239.

One hundred and fifty thousands gave a welcome home to the Chicago fans yesterday.

Jiro Satoh, Jap, defeated Ellsworth Vines 6-4, 6-4 in the quarter final matches of the Pacific southwest net meet at Los Angeles Thursday. Geo. de Stefani, Italy also turned in a surprise. He defeated Wilmer Allison, 2-6, 7-5, 6-1. John Van Ryn was drubbed by Henry Austin, England, 6-4, 1-6, 6-0. In the quarter final doubles, Vines and Keith Gledhill who lost in the singles to Fred Perry of England, beat Manuel Alonzo, Spain and de Stefani, Italy, 6-3, 6-1.

Jimmy Foxx smashed out two home runs yesterday when the Yankees and Athletics clashed. They made his fifty fifth and fifty sixth home runs.

Army sustained a setback yesterday when Ed Herb, star fullback last year and leading candidate for quarterback this year suffered a broken bone in his ankle during a scrimmage. He will be out of the game for two months.

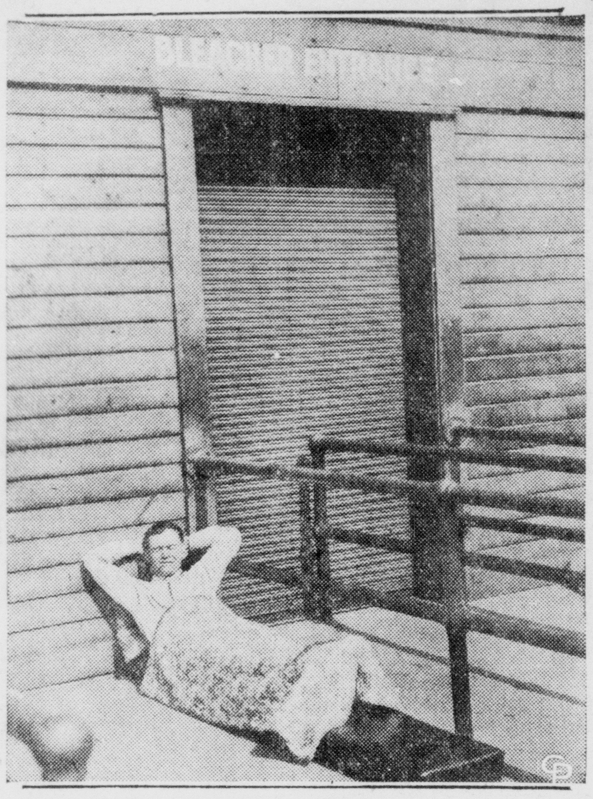
AT NEW YORK—Pete Sanstol, Norwegian bantamweight, defeated Eddie Bowling, Washington, 10.

AT WILMINGTON, Del.—Jack Kilbourne, Australian middleweight, defeated Danny Devlin, Allentown, Pa., 8.

AT BOSTON—Steve Halaiko, Buffalo, N. Y., lightweight, knocked out Tommy Rawson, Boston, 5.

AT PHILADELPHIA—Wally Sears, Minersville, Pa., heavyweight, defeated Henry Taylor, Philadelphia, 8.

HE'S ALL SET FOR WORLD SERIES



William Cunningham, the first fan to show up for the world series, makes himself comfortable on a bed of discarded automobile cushions at the bleacher entrance to the Yankee stadium. A former railroad fireman operating out of Kansas City, Mo., Cunningham made a $100 wager with a friend that he would be the first fan into the park. Looks like he'll win his wager.

Hillsville And Scarazzo Will Commence Series

Five-Game Series For Lawrence County Championship To Start Saturday

Hillsville and Scarazzos will start their five-game series for the Lawrence County baseball championship at Centennial Field Saturday afternoon with the playing of a doubleheader. The first game starts at 2 o'clock Daylight Time. There is a small admission fee for both games.

Mr. Conti manager of the Hillsville team feels that his team has a right to play Scarazzos for the title, inasmuch as the Mahonings refused to finish the last game of the Twilight series. The Scarazzos took four straight from the Mahonings. Hillsville should they defeat Scarazzos will claim the championship.

Scarazzos feel that they must defeat Hillsville to gain any recognition this year and Hillsville feels the same, so the issue will be settled on the baseball field.

Hillsville regrets the loss of young Henry Marshall, left fielder of the team and one of the youngest players in Lawrence County, who is now playing football with Bessemer high school. Marshall is a very dependable player and will be greatly missed in the coming series.

Conti, says that Hillsville is not using any outsiders in the series, other than the players who have been with the team all year.

Man To Referee Schmeling-Walker Bout Monday Night Will Be Carefully Chosen

By DAVIS J. WALSH
International News Service Sports Writer

NEW YORK, Sept. 23.—After spending several days looking earnestly for "the bag," Mr. Joe Jacobs is on his way back to Speculator, N. Y., this morning, convinced that all is well and that, oddly or otherwise, the better man must and will win the Schmeling-Walker prize fight on Monday night. He even is abandoning his threatened visit to the boxing commission today and has deputized a mysterious "second party" to present his list of judges and referees for official consideration. Altogether, Mr. Jacobs must be suffering very acutely. He now has nothing to worry about.

At least, that was his story before leaving town last night, a surprise departure in view of a sinister threat of "startling disclosures" and his proposed show-down with the commission. He said something vague about having "blocked all moves" and it may be added, for the sake of greater clarity, that life to Mr. Jacobs is made up of scoundrels lurking ominously in dark doorways. But, always he thwarts them just in time with a swift, daring coup and then, reassured and comforted, he relaxes his vigilance.

They must have been completely nonplussed this time, for even his list of officials is a negative one. It won't name the men he wants but the men he doesn't and I trust I am violating no confidence when I venture to state, that among the latter, will be Gunboat Smith the referee, and George Kelly, the judge who voted for Sharkey in the last fight.

The butter and egg men of the country say that the Federal Farm Board is playing ruination with their business, and the night-club proprietors in New York are all in a twitter of apprehension over it.—The Boston Transcript.

Hillsville Makes Reply To Mahoning Letter Of Protest

Patsy Conti, Hillsville manager, Gives His Side Of Recent Controversy

Today The News is publishing the final bit of news connected with the recent Mahoning A. A.-Hillsville controversy which resulted from actions in the last games of the series played at Centennial Field. Nick Cangey's side of the story has been told, and now Patsy Conti, manager of the Hillsville team presents his side.

Hillsville, Pa. Sept. 22, 1932

Sport Editor,
New Castle News,
New Castle, Pa.
Dear Sir:—

Please allow this statement a space in your columns which is an answer to Mr. Nick Cangey (manager of the Mahoning A. A. Base Ball Club) letter published in Wednesday's issue of your paper.

We are not going into details to tell the difficulties met by us in playing the five games series with Mahoning A. A. to decide the championship of the Lawrence County Twilight League, as it would occupy a great deal of your valuable space.

But we wish to cite a few of the most important ones which were factors in leading our Club to walk off the field in the last game of the series.

First—Agreements were broken, due to the fact that Mahoning A. A. scheduled a seven games series with Scarazzo Coal and started play before completing our series. A second agreement was broken by Mahoning A. A. in which they were to play the fourth game on our grounds and if the series did not end in this game, the fifth and last was to be played at Centennial field. For the good of baseball, and the society to complete the series we acceeded to their insistence in playing the remaining games at Centennial field, they having refused to come to Hillsville.

Second—Mahoning A. A. suggested that neutral umpires should officiate, to this we did not agree, believing that if our league umpires were good enough during all summer they were good enough for the series.

But their names were to be put in a hat and drawn. But to our surprise this agreement was also disregarded. Umpires Price and Dunn were their favorites and they officiated in all the games. Not until the fourth game we insisted that other umpires be given an opportunity to officiate, and that Price or Dunn should not be placed behind the plate. (Dunn officiated behind the plate in the first three games.)

Third—In the ball game contary to our request umpire Price was stationed behind the plate, but we went on with the game. The first half of the 6th umpire Dunn called time just at the moment our pitcher was in the act of delivering the ball, resulting in cutting the speed on the pitch of which the batter took advantage and hit.. A heated argument followed, forty five minutes were consumed, the field was stormed with hundreds of spectators. Contrary to the base ball book of rules umpire Price ruled (as he always did) in favor of Mahoning A. A.

Mr. Cangey says that he accepts umpire Price's decision as final and throws overboard the decision handed down by the Board of Commissioners who heard arguments on both sides on last Monday evening at the Y. M. C. A. building.

The decision handed by the commission exonerates our Club for any wrong or unsportsmanship for walking off the field.

Mr. Cangey says the public should be protected against such clubs as ours and penalized for disappointing the fans. We feel that all base ball enthusiasts should be protected against the type of umpires who possess the qualities of Mr. Ben Price in an official capacity.

Your for clean sports
P. CONTI,
Manager Hillsville Ind. Base Ball Club.

Lefty Gomez Is Given Beating

Odds On Yanks To Win World's Series Shift As Star Southpaw Loses To A's

PIRATES AGAIN DEFEAT CUBS

By LES CONKLIN
International News Service Sports Writer.

NEW YORK, Sept. 23.—Betting on the world series, which had made the Yankees heavy favorites to trim the Cubs, shifted sharply today as a result of the shellacking that Vernon Gomez, star southpaw of the Yanks, received at the hands of the Athletics in Philadelphia yesterday.

The colorful Castilian had been given a rest and the game was a test for him. He flunked completely, and was yanked unceremoniously after a third inning onslaught climaxed by homers by Foxx and McNair. The Yanks rallied to win the ball game in the tenth, 8 to 7, but the failure of Gomez remained a painful memory to Manager Joe McCarthy, who had seen his other ace, Charley Ruffing, get beaten by the A's the day before.

Pirates Lick Cubs.

McCarthy took some consolation, however, from the fact that the Cubs, since clinching the National league pennant, have played more like tailenders than champions. The Bruins were whitewashed yesterday for the second time since clinching the flag, receiving a 7 to 0 coat of calsimine at the hands of Harold Smith, Pittsburgh rookie. Grimes and Bob Smith hurled for the Cubs. Paul Waner of the Pirates collected his 59th two-bagger, tieing the National league record set by Chuck Klein of the Phillies two years ago. The American league record is 67.

The Athletics, in maltreating Ruffing and Gomez, have been setting a new team record daily for total home runs. They have connected for 167 circuit clouts this year, an American league record, and need four more in their remaining three games to tie the major league record.

Foxx Hits Two.

Jimmy Foxx also needs four to tie Babe Ruth's record of 60. He smashed out his 55th and 56th yesterday and McNair got one.

Leading Washington by only two games, the A's will begin a series with the Senators in Philadelphia today with second place at stake. The Senators clinched third place yesterday as General Alvin Crowder beat the Red Sox, 4 to 2, for his 14th successive victory and his 24th win of the season.

The Cardinals gained sole possession of sixth place in the National league by drubbing Cincinnati, 8 to 5, while the Giants were losing to Brooklyn, 7 to 2. The Dodgers won 15 out of 22 from their metropolitan rivals this season.

Schmeling Faces Fine Of $250 In Contempt Of Court

NEW YORK, Sept. 23. — Max Schmeling, German heavyweight, must pay a fine of $250 for contempt of court unless he submits to an examination before trial next Wednesday, under a court ruling of Supreme Court Justice Bernard Shientag.

The decision was made in a suit brought by Primo Carnera, giant Italian heavyweight boxer, against the former world's champion for failure to keep a contract to box him in September, 1931.

Justice Shientag fixed the fine because of Schmeling's failure to obey a court order for an examination on August 4. The justice said if Schmeling appeared Wednesday the fine would be remitted.

Carnera seeks a judgment of $100,000 for alleged damages.

Pitt Panthers Are Back In Pittsburgh

Pitt Football Team Ends Two Weeks Of Training At Camp Windber

(International News Service)

PITTSBURGH, Sept. 23.—Coach J. B. (Jock) Sutherland and his Pitt Panthers were back home today, completing a two weeks preseason training period at Camp Hamilton, in the mountains near Windber.

Faced with a hard schedule, Coach Sutherland awaits the opening game with Ohio Northern at the stadium on Saturday.

Rotary Golfers To Play Butler

Plans have been completed by the Rotary club golfers to play a return match with the Butler Rotarians at the Butler Country club on Wednesday, September 28.

Recently the local club challenged their Butler brethern to a match which was played here, the locals winning by seven strokes. The Butler group immediately challenged the New Castle Rotarians to a return match, which will be played next week.

Butler hopes to avenge the defeat sustained here, and the local Rotary group is determined to keep their slate unsullied.

Evidently Maine golfers never try to teach their wives the game. The state asylum for the insane reports that it contains no golf players.

Ellwood High In Important Game Here Saturday

Undefeated Midland Eleven To Be Attraction Here Tomorrow Afternoon

COACHES FINISH POLISHING TODAY

ELLWOOD CITY, Sept. 23.—Officials at the local high school predicted a great crowd Saturday afternoon when Coach Lomond's undefeated Midland High eleven invades this city for a battle with the Ellwood City High eleven at 3 o'clock.

Coaches George "Ganzy" Benedict and Mike Ferrare completed preparations for the game with a light signal drill this evening. They have been ironing out and polishing a number of rough spots observed in the game with Greenville last week. A scrimmage and plenty of it has been held every day this week except today. Special line scrimmages were held in which the work of each man was pointed out. The faults observed previously seem to have been corrected. Several new plays have been added to the teams repertoire.

May Change Lineup

The report showing of some new members of the squad is expected to change the starting lineup somewhat on Saturday afternoon. Big husky John Savor, 190 pound tackle may start with "Red". Vogt in place of Pratt. Jack Steckman has been going great guns all week at right guard with Mike Paal and it will not be surprising to find him in the line-up. A new backfield sensation has been uncovered in Harry Ott who may get the call for the right half berth. Ott has shown to the coaches that he is a splendid open field ball carrier and is exceptionally fleet. He is also a decided strength on the defense.

Much change has been noted in the whole squad since last Saturday. The coaches let it be known that a number of places on the team have to be filled by Saturday. Everyone has been working their heads off in an effort to acquire a uniform.

The locals showed no apparent weakness on the defense last week but Coach Benedict was taking no chances. He drilled his proteges in the art of blocking and tackling every day. The backfield has been taught a few tricks in their department since a week ago and some noticeable improvement is expected Saturday. Some excellent ball toting was done by "Spungo" Vandrella and Ott in the scrimmages.

Probable Lineup

At present it appears that Vandrello at left half and Luxenberg at full are the likely starters. The signal barking will be between Fagan and McCloskey. The latter got the call last week and seems to be favored again. The right position will be the puzzle. Right now its an interesting battle between Howells, Bunny, and Ott. Welsh and Barnes are the likely starters at the ends, Vogt at left tackle, Paal at left guard, and Abbatachio at center. At right tackle will be either Pratt or Savor; at right guard, Rocco, Navolio, or Steckman.

Saturday will be Midland's first game of the season which should be a little advantage for the locals. Midland has been hard hit by gradation, losing 17 lettermen. Only two regulars remain. Jakes, Ordich, Spisak, and Minnovich are gone from the backfield, and Trbovich, Green, Mikovich, Luksich, Koss, and Milic from the line. This leaves only Karas and Tepovich to carry on. The latter is captain. Despite this loss Coach Lomond has still an imposing array of football players who have the incentive of a perfect season last year to drive them on. Midland last year was runner-up to Clairton for W. P. I. A. L. honors.

One of the hardest games of the season is on deck for the local warriors tomorrow afternoon. A victory means everything to both teams. Ellwood will strive to wipe out the sting of last year's 26-0 defeat at the hands of the Lomond men. This was the worst defeat suffered by the Ellwood team for the season.

Midland is the first game of a difficult schedule. Butler and Beaver Falls follow. Grove City has been secured to fill the open date of October 15 here in accordance with the agreement with New Castle that both teams should play a week before their game.

MARY POLLOCK CLASS

Mrs. Edward Workley was leader for the occasion. An interesting Bible character sketch was given by Mrs. Graham. The class decided to hold prayer meeting each week before the Sunday evening services with members of the class in charge.

An interesting social period was brought to a close by the serving of a dainty repast by the hostess assisted by her daughter, Miss Thelma Graham.

Fourth Day Of Fast For Gandhi

Gandhi Feels Strain Of His Self Imposed Fast Today

CONTROVERSY MAY BE SETTLED

(International News Service)

POONA, Sept. 23. — Mahatma Gandhi seriously felt the strain of his fast as it entered its fourth day at noon today.

While the Mahatma lay in the Yeravda jail fighting grimly with hunger, it was learned that all the leaders of the Hindu "Untouchables" except Dr. B. R. Ambedkar had given him full freedom to negotiate a settlement with the representatives of the Caste Hindus.

It was believed that settlement of the electoral controversy would be reached by this evening and that soon afterwards Gandhi's fast would end automatically.

Adopt Ordinance To Pay Mills For Service To City

Council met in city hall today and adopted an ordinance calling for payment of salary amounting to $1,668.27, to C. S. Mills for time served as a city fireman under an illegal appointment.

The period during which Mills served was from March, 1931 until April, 1932. The amount was agreed upon between members of council and former Judge Martin counsel for Mills.

Mills was named illegally by a former council. According to his superiors in the fire department and other city officers, he performed his duties in an excellent manner.

He was injured while in service. Counsel for Mills pointed out that had he not performed the work the city would have had to employ and pay another fireman.

FIND WRONG NAME ON DEATH CERTIFICATE

(International News Service)

RICHMOND, Va., Sept. 23.—When Theodore Levy died of a gunshot wound in Monroe, La., his body was sent to Washington for cremation.

Upon the arrival of the ashes at the family home here, relatives attempted to have his right name placed on the death certificate. The city health bureau refused to do this on the ground that identification of the body of Theodore Levy was impossible since it was merely a cask of ashes.

The family, however, will place a gravestone bearing the right name over a burial vault.

STEEL FLAG POLES FOR STATE CAPITOL

(International News Service)

HARRISBURG, Sept. 23.—Broken flagpoles have flouted the tradition that the "people's portal," main entrance doors of the capitol, are never closed, except as part of an inaugural ceremony.

Three nights recently workmen found it necessary to break the time-honored custom while they raised more than two tons of flagpoles to the roof. The main doors were closed to prevent any mishap to persons who might walk out while the work was in progress.

A painter while giving the flagpoles a new "coat" last week found they had rotted and the department of property and supplies ordered them replaced with steel poles.

JURISTS ARE FACED WITH NEW PROBLEM

(International News Service)

CLAIRTON, Pa., Sept. 23.—Pennsylvania's judicial circles are faced with the obnoxious problem of determining just what law a man violates when he burns his own automobile.

James Thomas, 35, of this village, has been arrested for just that. No charge has been filed against Thomas because Police Chief J. F. Brennan can't determine the exact nature of the violation.

When Thomas was unable to sell his car, he drove it out into the country and set it afire. But his explanation that "I tried to sell it but couldn't find a buyer" just didn't satisfy Chief Brennan.

The first three plates presented were from the homes of A. J. Herr, G. Irwin Beatty and Immanuel S. German, all pioneer residents.

GAMES MAY DESTROY EYESIGHT OF CHILDREN

According to Miss Eleanor P. Brown, secretary of the National Society for the Prevention of Blindness, many children lose their eyesight by the games they play. The air rifle in the hands of a boy may seriously damage the eye; a pair of shears may cause injury, and in spite of "safety first" education and regulation of the sale of fireworks by law, children suffer painful injuries on Fourth of July. The "cannon cracker" exploded in a milk bottle is a frequent source of harm.

West Side Crowd At Flower Show

Parents, Students Witness Afternoon Program; Awards Are Given

MANY EXCEPTIONALLY FINE DISPLAYS SEEN

A colorful horseshoe-shaped floral display and a side exhibit of home-grown vegetables formed the center of attraction Thursday as the West Side school pupils celebrated their annual "Flower and Vegetable Day" program. Visitors viewed the exhibits all day long.

With two Garden club representatives present to judge the display, and with an afternoon garden program for an appropriate closing event, the students and parents enjoyed the afternoon together.

Before the auditorium program the visitors viewed the show downstairs. Floral entries, picked from pupils' gardens were banked in a solid mass to form a giant horseshoe about the main lobby. The vegetables were on a long table inside the shoe.

Mrs. E. J. Connery and Mrs. Phil H. Bridenbuagh, the officiating judges, chose the winners for both the flower and vegetable shows. They also spoke to the pupils and parents later.

Honor ribbons were pinned on the outstanding entries, and "honorable mention" was attached to every other display. The high prizes went to the following:

Flowers—

First prize (blue ribbon): Russell Hall, Donald Jerry, Ethel Horton and Marian Sweezy.

Second prize (red ribbon): Marice McClure, Hazel Emery, Daisy Caldwell and Arthur Durlesser

Third prize (white ribbon): Helen Parks, Emma Cross, Johanna Woods and Dorothy Kastner

Second prize (red ribbon): Billie Proctor, Marie Ault and Margaret, Jennie and Betty Williams.

ROAMING

With Richards

Some News, Some Views, But Mostly Just Observations Of Interesting Things Around New Castle.

If you can keep a secret, this is the last week of Daylight Savings and tomorrow night when you go to bed at midnight you'll be in bed at eleven o'clock. Parlor workers and heavy sleepers get an extra hour, married men can stay out an hour longer, and the alibis for missing church will be numerous.

The railroads will change their time tables, the golf player will be on short rations insofar as daylight is concerned, and the football games can be started an hour earlier in the evening if anybody wants them started earlier.

Back in the summer when the D. S. T. started, the alibis for late starts on projects were blamed on the new time. Now the alibi goes into reverse and the same lads will be around an hour earlier. Yes they will.

The prize piece of absent minded work goes to a local lad who was on an automobile trip recently. Pulling up to a gas station he gravely took the radiator cap off, and shoved the air hose down the top. Satisfied with filling the radiator he took off the dust caps from the air intakes on the tires and tried to fill the tires with water. And this story is no revision of the old absent minded professor, this is a true one.

Sometime ago a local swain who reads this colyum suggested the formation of the Minor Sex Fraternity, to include all lads who had to wait for the lights of their lives until bridge parties adjourned. Now he has another suggestion, that stock model automobiles be manufactured in sleeping car models.

And here's a request that has come in and is going out to you. Does anybody have a copy of a poem titled "Moonlight On the Slippery Rock?" Seems as though somebody wrote such a poem years ago and about four years ago it was reprinted in The News. Now a Slippery Rock enthusiast wants to know where he can get a copy of the poem and if you have it, will you send it in?

With the shifting in Methodist ministers in the city, Croton M. E. now has the distinction of having the dean of the Methodist ministers of the city in that pulpit. Rev. Joshua now takes that title which carries with it something or other in the way of attention.

The new ministers will be in their pulpits Sunday morning. For Dr. Norris A. White who comes to the First M. E., it means coming back to his home town to preach. Years ago he was a resident of Pearson street I believe.

Rev. Samuel L. Maxwell who was in Epworth also goes back to his home town, also, Oil City. And with his leaving one of the most ardent fishermen among the city's ministers leaves.

Tonight under the candelabras, New Castle High School takes on McKees Rocks, the big little boro adjoining Pittsburgh. And if the weather gets just a little nippier you can imagine you are in mid-season.

Ask Your Banker, He May Have Some Forgotten Money

Koppel Resident Informed By Bank Official Of Forgotten Money In Account

Some New Castle folks, who are of the opinion they have no money in their accounts in local banks, might be agreeably surprised if they would inquire, just as Charles Mount of Koppel was the other day.

Mr. Mount hasn't worked for two years, and the family larder was scarcely any larder at all. Mount was stopped on the street by the president of the Koppel bank and informed he had some money in the bank, not much, but it is money, he was told.

Mr. Mount hastened to the bank and found there was $11.54 in an old account, which had been left there through an error in balancing checks by the Mounts. They had thought their account was exhausted long ago.

Now $11.54 doesn't go very far in a family of seven, but $11.54 is certainly a great deal more than nothing at all.

Motorists, we glimpse in a little news item, are now able to travel from Shanghai, China, to Hangchow which ought to be comforting in the event that the Japanese try a little more peaceful penetration in that vicinity.—The Milwaukee Sentinel.

Mrs. Thomas James is in charge of the nursery which has been opened this week in the Carnegie auditorium for the convenience of mothers or parents who attend the revival meetings.

The nursery is equipped with small beds, cribs, rocking chairs and various toys with which to amuse small children and if the parents attending the services will leave the small children in charge of the efficient corps of women in the nursery they will enjoy the meetings and keep from annoying their neighbors with a small child's restlessness.

NEW YORK WOMAN STILL IN HOSPITAL

Senta Graf, of New York City, a victim of an automobile accident which occurred on the Butler road about a month ago, is still being treated for her injuries in the Jamison Memorial hospital.

The accident in which Miss Graf was seriously injured proved fatal to two other occupents of the car, William Berger a New York theatrical agent, and his seven year old daughter, June. Miss Graf received burns when the wrecked machine burst into flames. The burns were of such a nature they may have proved fatal except for the prompt treatment given them.

Still, you could think up a law that would add almost everybody to the criminal class.
